Troops In Field Getting Orders To Cease Firing

CAIRO (AP)—Cease-fire orders are going out today to Arab and Jewish troops in the field. They are being told to stop shooting, starting tomorrow morning, for four weeks, during which efforts will be made to settle the month-old Palestine war peacefully.

Premier Tewfik Abu Alhuda announced in Amman, Trans-Jordan, Wednesday night that Trans-Jordan forces in Palestine already had been ordered to cease fire at the appointed deadline—9 a.m. Friday, Palestine time (11 p.m. Thursday, P.D.T.). This would include the Arab Legion, one of the Arabs' main striking forces.

In Tel Aviv, Israel's foreign minister, Moshe Shertok, said in announcing his government's acceptance of the United Nations-engineered truce that Israel was ready to issue a cease-fire order to Jewish troops.

Count Folke Bernadotte of Sweden, U.N. mediator who announced the cease-fire, told both the Arabs and Jews Wednesday night he hoped they would notify every commander on the Palestine battlefield of its date and hour in order to avoid misunderstandings.

Count Bernadotte said he would call a peace conference as soon as possible on the neutral Mediterranean island of Rhodes. "We have achieved only the first step," he told reporters. "I assure you we are going to work with the same energy for the big result we hope to get—peace in Palestine."

Shertok declared Israel's acceptance of the truce "is not a matter of military necessity to us."

ACCUSED OF BLUNDER

Irgun Zvai Leumi, former Jewish terrorist organization, assailed the Israeli government's acceptance of the truce and charged the government with a grave blunder in not demanding withdrawal of Arab invaders from Palestine soil. It also criticized acceptance of immigration restrictions and claimed the truce, under such conditions, would mean deterioration of Israel's political and military status.

The mediator said the U.N. consular truce commission, composed of representatives of the United States, France and Belgium, would supervise immigration and other controls during the truce, through 63 military observers.

COUNCIL INFORMED

LAKE SUCCESS (CP)—The United Nations' Security Council met this afternoon to hear formally of the acceptance of their request four-week cease-fire in Palestine.

But along with the "good news," they faced a request by Russia that the Soviet be permitted to send military observers to the truce commission staff. What Russia's reaction will be to the announcement Wednesday night by Trygve Lie, U.N. secretary-general, that truce commission members had been appointed, remained a point of great speculation here today.

Along with the appointment of military mission members, Lie disclosed that arrangements were being made to send six coastal patrol vessels to Palestine.

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—The Red Cross reported today finding 41 of 121 persons listed Wednesday night as missing since Vancouver was destroyed by flood. The 41 whose names were on a "critical list" reported to the Red Cross today from as far away as Montana. That left 80 persons still missing.

Peace Defence Force

BREMERTON, Wash. (AP)—President Truman told a shouting throng here today that we must have "a national defence force for peace." He described the truce between the Arabs and the Jews as "a victory for the United Nations."

Mr. Truman said the Bremerton navy yard would make a contribution to the defence program for peace as it did for war.

U.S. Politicians Remove Gloves After Truman Blast At Congress

WASHINGTON (AP)—The political gloves have come off in the wake of President Truman's "worst Congress" speech and a Republican leader's "poorest President" retort.

The long-distance verbal slugfest shows every sign of turning the United States presidential campaign into the roughest and toughest in years.

The name-calling started Wednesday at Spokane, where Truman, openly bidding for votes on his western tour, lashed out anew at the Republican-controlled Congress. He told a civic celebration that the American people deserve more of the present Congress if they fail to vote in November.

Republican Congress members struck back swiftly and pointedly. "There are a lot of people," commented the House of Representatives Republican leader, Charles Halleck of Indiana, "who think Mr. Truman is the poorest President we have had since George Washington was elected."

TAFT TO SPEAK

Senator Robert Taft of Ohio, chairman of the Senate's Republican policy committee and candidate for his party's Presidential nomination, will have a made-to-order forum for a rebuttal tomorrow night.

Taft, who has tangled with Truman before on Congress' record, is booked for an appearance on the National Broadcasting Company's "Pro and Con" program at 10:45 p.m., E.D.T. The broadcast, on the subject, "Shall We Go Back to the New Deal?" was planned before the President's latest outcry.

Gets First Strawberries Of Season

Bert Bickford is proud of this crate of luscious red strawberries picked Wednesday at his Saanichton farm. He believes they are the first from this area for the local market and with the honor of leading the way among strawberry growers comes top prices. The berries are selling for 60 cents a box retail which means the crate of 24 Mr. Bickford is displaying is worth $14.40. First strawberries last year were picked May 23. The cold wet spring has slowed this year's crop. As a result the season probably will not last the usual six weeks.

Saskatchewan Nominates For Its Election June 24

REGINA (CP)—The C.C.F. and the Liberals today accounted for almost 150 candidates for the June 24 Saskatchewan general election, with Social Credit next in line.

At the 2 p.m. closing time for official nominations approached almost 150 candidates were listed. Fifty seats will be contested on the June date while the two remaining seats will be decided July 22.

Only the C.C.F. had indicated it would contest the full 50 seats up for decision on June 24. The Liberals had picked 41 candidates and Social Credit 38. The Progressive Conservatives had declared their intention of running eight candidates.

Voting in two of the 52 ridings—the far-northern constituencies of Athabasca and Cumberland—had to be postponed until July 22 because late spring thaws made election organization impossible in those districts. Nominations will be on July 8.

In an attempt to end the domination of the Legislature by the C.C.F.—which holds 47 seats—the Liberals and Progressive Conservatives have joined hands in a number of ridings to run coalition candidates. One such instance is in Weyburn, where Premier T. C. Douglas is seeking re-election.

Plan For Prairie Pipeline Postponed

OTTAWA (CP)—A private bill proposing incorporation of a pipeline company to carry natural gas from Alberta to Saskatchewan and Manitoba was withdrawn at a sitting of the Senate committee on transport and communications today.

The committee was informed that, in deference to opposition to the scheme from the minister of transport until a general bill controlling pipelines could be introduced in Parliament, the sponsors wished to withdraw their bill for the time being.

The bill, to have incorporated Western Pipelines Ltd., was opposed on various grounds by the three provincial governments when it first came before the committee for consideration last month.

Long Voyage Home For Vanport House

Trooping Color Canceled While Rain Threatens

LONDON (Reuter)—Thousands of Londoners, packed tightly together to see the trooping of the color on the King's official birthday gaped in astonishment today when loudspeaker vans suddenly appeared to announce that because of the weather the King had canceled what is one of the most colorful royal pageants of the year.

Sixty-seven officers and 1,735 other ranks waiting in their barracks for the parade were told to take off the high boots they had been polishing since early morning and strip themselves of the brilliant scarlet, white and black uniforms which they were wearing for the first time since the war. For months they had been rehearsing.

In the waiting crowds foreign diplomats in morning coats and grey top hats, and women in fashionable dresses dispersed in disappointment.

Reason given for the cancellation, announced only an hour before the parade, was that meteorological experts had forecast rain and thunderstorms. Lightning had struck in London a few hours earlier.

UNIFORMS CONSIDERED

A War Office official said the risk of rain had to be taken into account because of the effect a downpour has on scarlet uniforms, valuable and hard to replace in Britain's age of austerity.

The King was to have ridden as colonel-in-chief of the famous British Guards regiments from Buckingham Palace to the parade grounds, with a retinue of mounted officers.

Gossip spreading among the crowds inevitably centred on the possibility of a royal illness, but this received no encouragement from official quarters, who insisted the weather alone was responsible for the cancellation.

Equally without confirmation were crowd rumors that Scotland Yard had received reports of a bomb attempt being planned.

It was announced the King would, as planned, open the Royal Tournament indoors at Olympia later today. Crowds gathered outside Buckingham Palace during the morning and there were some shouts of "We want the King," but there was no royal balcony appearance.

Research Plane Flies Faster Than Sound

WASHINGTON (AP)—Air Secretary Stuart Symington said today the United States air force research plane XS-1 several times has flown "much faster than the speed of sound."

Symington told a press conference that so far as he knows no other plane has achieved supersonic speed, that is, faster than sound travels.

The first and only pilot to fly the XS-1 beyond the so-called sonic wall is Capt. Charles E. Yeager, 25, a fighter pilot who destroyed 13 German planes while serving with the air force.

Yeager is a test pilot assigned to the air materiel command at Wright Field, Ohio.

Engineers Preparing Report On Plan For Nova Scotia Bridge

OTTAWA (CP)—Maritime members, backed up by an Ontario supporter, called on the government in the Commons today to bridge Nova Scotia's Strait of Canso, realign railway lines in that province and improve ferry service to Prince Edward Island.

Members of all major parties joined in the appeals to Transport Minister Chevrier while estimates of his department for the year were going through the House.

From the minister, the members heard that the Canso project was still under survey, but that the Canadian National Railways considered the line-straightening job in Nova Scotia too expensive.

Reviewing the history of investigation into the feasibility of a bridge over the strait between the Nova Scotia mainland and Cape Breton Island, Mr. Chevrier said the situation now was that the government still was waiting a survey report from engineers and expected to have it next month. He could add nothing to this previously-announced information.

Mr. Chevrier gave no reply to requests for the establishment of an auxiliary service to supplement the work of the present ferry between Prince Edward Island and New Brunswick.

Red Cross Seeks 200 Men To Help Battle Fraser Flood

Two hundred able-bodied men from Greater Victoria are being sought by the Red Cross to go to the mainland and assist in flood control work.

The appeal for manpower was made Wednesday night, following receipt of a telegram here by Col. J. Q. Gillan, Victoria Red Cross president, from Vancouver. Shortly before noon today, names of 57 volunteers were registered at the Red Cross office.

Those registering will be called upon within the next 48 hours if they are going to be called at all. D. H. Seymour, public relations officer of the Red Cross, said this morning: "Persons who go will receive

Mission Gauge Shows Fraser At Record High

VANCOUVER (CP)—Winds and rain throughout the Columbia and Kootenay River flood areas today sent the frenzied rivers on to new devastation.

From Trail, 230 miles east of Vancouver, up the Columbia-Arrow waterways system to Robson and Nelson, and from there down the Kootenay to Creston, flood control officials are busy counting overnight losses.

Creston's 20,000 acres of rich farmland have been narrowed down to an island of about 5,000 acres, with civilian and army personnel battling, desperately to save the last dikes. Crop damage estimates range from $1,000,000 to $1,500,000, but permanent damage to the land itself is considered negligible. Silt in that area will prove beneficial to the soil, officials predict.

CLOUDBURST AT PROCTER

At Procter, 40 miles north of Creston, a cloudburst washed out a bridge on the Canadian Pacific Railway's Kettle Valley line, disrupting railway connections east to Calgary, and cutting telegraph communications to Creston. Telephone lines between Creston and Vancouver are trailing some of their poles, and are considered likely to come down.

Nelson's storm added half an inch of rain to the swelling Columbia, with the brunt of the tempest falling 22 miles north-east of Queen's Bay. Cottages and resort cabins are partly under water.

At Trail, seepage is increasing through the dikes. Two minor breaches were stemmed overnight. Some buildings on Bay Avenue have as much as 10 feet of water in the basements. Flooding has forced the Trail Times to move its stereotyping equipment upstairs.

Revelstoke, 160 miles north of Trail, reported the Columbia is down 12 inches. Twenty-five farms are flooded, and water is over the dikes on the outskirts of the city. The Trans-Canada Highway is washed out nine miles west of the town, and rail services to Arrowhead and the Arrow Lakes is suspended.

WARNED TO LEAVE

In the Fraser Valley, flood-fighters passed another anxious night without any major breaks, but conditions were precarious on the Vedder Canal, 60 miles east of here. People not actually fighting the floods have been told to leave the threatened area.

The gauge at Mission today recorded a new high of 24.62 feet. Dikes, guarding 20,000 acres of fertile Lulu Island farmland, withstood the assault of a 14.2 spring tide late Thursday night. With a 14.4-foot tide, highest of the year, expected tonight, flood officials said only a near miracle would hold back the raging waters of "Old Muddy."

BRIDGE LIMITATIONS

The New Westminster flood control committee has banned all but essential traffic on the Fraser River and its tributaries from Mission to the sea until further notice. Naval craft were ordered to intercept unauthorized vessels on the Fraser's north arm.

Small War Feared As Rival Seamen Carrp Near Cornwall

CORNWALL, Ont. (CP)—Two large groups of rival seamen are camped within a mile of each other along the Cornwall Canal and police fear a small war is about to be fought.

Wednesday they quelled a short-lived riot after a squad of Montreal taxi-cabs and trucks had discharged about 150 Canadian Lake Seamen's Union men on Cornwall streets.

Police said the Canadian Seamen's Union picketing the strike-bound waterfront had prepared to storm the motorized convoy which reached Cornwall at midnight.

So far, police have arrested 28-year-old Jacques Drapeau of Montreal and charged him with illegal possession of firearms. Brandishing a .38 revolver, the Montreal man, who holds a C.I.S.U. card, was badly beaten by 30 men on the waterfront and lodged in jail after he had been fished from the Cornwall Canal.

At other points along Lake Ontario the six-day-old strike was comparatively quiet. The Canadian Seamen's Union (T.L.C.) struck to force five shipping firms to hire C.S.U. crews. The firms—Canada Steamships, Transit Tankers, Northwest, Sarnia Steamships and Colonial Steamships—have charged the C.S.U. with Communist domination and have hired crews from the C.I.S.U.

LEADER ARRESTED

TORONTO (CP)—Joe Sullivan, Canadian Seamen's Union organizer, was arrested today following a scuffle between pickets and police on the waterfront here. It was stated he would be charged with obstructing police.

Victoria Visitor, U.S. Labor Secretary Schwellenbach, Dies

WASHINGTON (AP)—Labor Secretary Lewis B. Schwellenbach died today. He had been ill several weeks.

He was 53 years old and had been United States Labor Department chief since June 30, 1945.

The White House said death resulted from "cardiac failure, which complicated his recent illness."

President Truman, now on the west coast, was notified of his death.

A native of Superior, Wis., who took a law degree at the University of Washington and practiced law for years in Seattle, Lewis Baxter Schwellenbach was a frequent Victoria visitor before he went to Washington as President Truman's labor secretary.

Before joining the federal cabinet he had served as U.S. Senator for Washington from 1935 to 1940 and as U.S. district judge for the eastern district of Washington. He had also served as an instructor at the University of Washington, president of that university's board of regents, member of the advisory board of Washington State College, dean of Gonzaga University law school, delegate to the Interparliamentary Union at The Hague in 1938, member of the American Council of the Institute of Pacific Relations and the American Academy of Political and Social Science.

St. Stephen To Help In Atlantic Flight

OTTAWA (CP)—A Canadian weather ship located in the Far North will co-operate in the first trans-Atlantic group flight by eight British jet-propelled planes, naval headquarters here said today.

At the request of the Royal Air Force, the navy has ordered the Canadian weather ship, H.M.C.S. St. Stephen, to remain at her station in Davis Strait, off the western coast of Greenland, when the eight jet-propelled Vampires streak across the Atlantic early in July.

Airplane Helps Extend Television Horizon

BALTIMORE (AP)—With the aid of an airplane 25,000 feet above the Allegheny Mountains, station WMAR-TV of Baltimore Wednesday night telecast a program into the midwest. The telecast was reported to be plainly visible in Cleveland, nearly 300 miles away. Range of telecasting normally is limited by the earth's curvature to about a 40-mile radius.

Hitler Accomplished Only Half Program To Destroy Jews

NUERNBERG (AP)—Hitler accomplished only half his goal in his plan to destroy the Jews. Documents in war crimes trials here disclosed there was a master plan to gas 11,000,000.

A cold, impersonal discussion of the "final solution of the Jewish question" took place at a conference Jan. 20, 1942, in Berlin.

A record of the conference was introduced in the trial of the Nazi ministers.

Prosecutor Robert Kemper claimed the document put full blame for the Jewish annihilation on the ministers, including the foreign office, instead of the usual Himmler-Bormann scapegoats.

Attending the conference were Stuckart of the interior ministry; Freisler, of justice; Luther of the foreign office; Meyer and Leibbrandt of the occupied east and Neumann of the "Four-Year Plan."

A chart was laid down listing 11,000,000 Jews, even including those in the British Isles. At that time the Nazi hierarchy apparently had not given up hope of defeating and occupying Great Britain.

The plan succeeded in the extermination of upwards of 6,000,000.

Even half-Jews were included in the extermination program. Quarter-Jews were to be given the choice of sterilization or death. The minutes of the meeting recorded this as a "voluntary" phase of the plan.

Higher Court To Try 31 Lake Seamen

WELLAND, Ont. (CP)—Trial of 31 seamen charged with conspiracy to damage the collier Glenelg and render her unseaworthy was traversed today until Ontario Supreme Court sittings Sept. 7.

Crown Attorney T. F. Forestell moved the trial be traversed when Judge H. E. Fuller quashed an indictment against the members of Canadian Seamen's Union (T.L.C.), charging "mischief" because it did not allege any of the accused "willfully" damaged the ship at Thorold last April 22.

A charge of assault against the seamen will be heard at the Supreme Court sitting and a new indictment on the mischief charge will be presented to the grand jury at that time.

Smuts Sees Menace Of Fifth Column

CAMBRIDGE, Eng. (AP)—Field Marshal Jan Christiaan Smuts declared today that the "fifth column technique" is the greatest menace to the western world.

Smuts, who recently was defeated as Prime Minister of South Africa, said the technique was the modern substitute for war and served the aggressor as well as war itself.

The white-bearded statesman spoke at ceremonies at which he was proclaimed chancellor of Cambridge, an honorary academic post.

Smuts contended that, while the fifth column menace western civilization, preparedness far war was insurance against it. "This new technique of conquest without war has proved so successful that it has become all but a substitute for war itself, as the recent record of all eastern Europe has proved."

The advance is resolutely continued, as the martyrdom of Greece shows. The silent, grim battlefield is moving westward in central Europe... nothing in the past has been more significant than this new technique of aggression and of pacific conquest, which has taken the place of orthodox war, and renders it all but unnecessary and obsolete except as a very last resort.

The correct counter-measure was firmness. Norman Robertson, Canadian High Commissioner to Great Britain, was given an honorary degree of doctor of laws. Fifteen others, including Winston Churchill and Sir Stafford Cripps, also received honorary degrees.

8-Month Welfare Probe May Wind Up This Month

EDMONTON (CP)—Alberta's Royal Commission on child welfare administration may wind up its hearings in June after eight months. It was speculated today after government counsel Horace Johnson had said he expected to conclude his presentation by Friday.

After that, only cross-examination of government witnesses by George Steer, counsel for the Imperial Order, Daughters of the Empire, and summation by opposing counsel would remain. The commission has been investigating charges of a report prepared for the I.O.D.E. by Dr. Charlotte Whitton that malpractices exist in the province's administration of child welfare.

New Law Would Bring Interest Rate Jump

ELROSE, Sask. (CP)—Should the Saskatchewan government succeed in getting approval of the crop failure feature in its Security Act it would result in interest on federal loans being increased from 4½ to 6 or 6½ per cent. Rt. Hon. James G. Gardiner, federal agriculture minister, told more than 400 persons at Elrose arena Wednesday night.

The item which he described as the only new feature in an act that otherwise merely embodies former Liberal security legislation provided for cancellation of direct or indirect interest on loans in crop failure years when proceeds were under $6 per acre.

Auction Brings High Prices

Estate of the late Mrs. Harry Briggs and the Estate of one of Victoria's earliest families was sold by Maynard and Sons, Monday and Tuesday, at the Willows Fair Grounds.

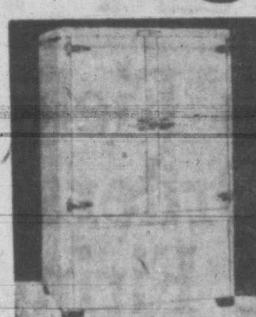

A. J. Maynard, senior member of the pioneer firm of auctioneers and appraisers, stated that despite the unusual hot weather prices were considered good.

A. R. Roberts, another member of the firm, stated that the bidding was particularly spirited on brassware and copperware, that a mid-Victorian dining room suite brought $300.00, modern Dresden figurines brought as high as $95.00, a mid-Victorian dining table sold for $270.00 and Victorian ladies' and gentlemen's chairs brought around $100.00 each.

Money for the Flood Fund was raised by serving iced soft drinks also by the sale of a china fruit set donated by a local antique shop.

Mr. Maynard stated that it is definitely a sellers' market today and that "our staff of three auctioneers and nine assistants is kept very busy."

Soviet Paper Says Western Agents Spying In Berlin

BERLIN (AP)—The Russian military newspaper said today the Russians will end what it called a western spy centre in Berlin.

The accusation and threat came soon after the Russians had imposed new "travel" bans between their zone of Germany and the U.S.-British areas. Both appeared to be moves in the long cold war against the western powers, in an effort to force them from this island city occupied by all four powers in the heart of the Russian zone.

The newspaper, Tagliche Rundschau, asserted:

"We must emphasize that no (four-power) agreement on Berlin foresaw the transformation of Berlin into an espionage and sabotage centre against the Soviet occupation zone."

The same newspaper said the six-power recommendations for a federal government in western Germany "can never be internationally recognized and can never become law." Communist newspapers took the same line, calling on Germans to resist the plan.

U.S. and British authorities said no Russian border crossing points, were completely closed to travelers.

Ex-King Michael, Anne Married At Colorful Ceremony In Athens

ATHENS (CP)—Michael, youthful ex-king of Romania, and Anne, a 24-year-old Danish princess of the House of Bourbon-Parma, were married today in the royal palace here.

In a ceremony which took slightly more than 20 minutes, Archbishop Damaskinos of the Greek Orthodox Church united the royal families of Romania and Denmark. Anne and Michael first met at the wedding last fall of Princess Elizabeth and Prince Philip in London.

Anne, wearing a rose-colored embroidered tulle dress with a veil and an 11-foot-long train carried by three pages, was given away by her uncle, Prince Erik of Denmark.

EX-KING MICHAEL

King Paul of Greece acted as best man for Michael, who wore the dress uniform of a Romanian general.

As Princess Anne entered the hall, converted into a Greek Orthodox chapel, on her uncle's arm, King Paul, standing by the altar with the bridegroom, came forward and led her to her place beside him.

King Paul's aide de camp held heavy gold crowns behind the couple as the Archbishop conducted the ceremony, watched by members of the Greek and former Balkan royal families and deputy Prime Minister Constantinos Tsaldaris of Greece.

The Royal Guard of Evzones, mountain troops wearing the traditional gold embroidered uniform with white skirts, lined the throne hall and kept security guard outside the palace which was barred to the press and the public during the wedding.

The young couple were showered with rice and rose petals. Their crowns were connected by a ribbon, symbolizing their union. Former Queen Helen of Romania, Michael's mother, attended the wedding, with Queen Frederika of Greece and her three children.

Others included the Duke of Edinburgh's mother and sister, Princess Andrew of Greece and Princess Sophie of Hanover, and

THREE PROVINCIAL CONTESTS

STILL ANOTHER PROVINCIAL Premier has decided to ask his electorate for new instructions. Mr. Duplessis announced yesterday that voting in Quebec will take place next July 28. The standing of the parties in the Legislature at dissolution was as follows: Union Nationale, government, 32; Liberals, 33; Bloc Populaire, 1; Nationalist, 1; Independents, 3; vacant, 1. Total 91. Ninety-two seats will be contested in the coming election.

Indications are that, true to traditional form, the fight in the Ancient Province will be no kid-glove affair. No love is lost between the head of the Union Nationale Party and Liberal Opposition Leader Adolphe Godbout. Neither pulled a punch in the crucial battle of the ballots in the early months of the Second World War. In October, 1939, it will be recalled, two or three of Mr. Mackenzie King's key ministers risked their political fortunes in support of Mr. Godbout's bid for office; the result was an outstanding victory for the Liberal Party. At the general election in 1944, however, the fortunes were reversed. Hence the campaign material will be brought up to date and the old issues will be appropriately warmed over—with some new ones—as befits the occasion. Although the C.C.F. Party had but one member in the last House, it may be assumed, in the light of what happened recently in Ontario and in British Columbia, that Mr. Godbout will make his arrangements accordingly with the provincial command.

Saskatchewan's general election on June 24 and New Brunswick's on June 28 will naturally be watched with interest by the voters of Quebec as well as by the Canadian people generally. Though the Progressive Conservative Party has failed to make any visible political headway in the prairie province, it is worth noting that in several constituencies a working arrangement has been reached between its leader and provincial Liberal chief Walter Tucker. But the main lesson of the Saskatchewan election, of course, will be furnished by the rank and file of electors in their reaction to four years of Socialist rule—the first of its kind in Canada. In the case of New Brunswick, on the other hand, the long preponderance of Liberal sentiment in that province should be sufficient to evoke buoyant hope of success in the political breast of Premier J. B. McNeil, K.C. But strange things are happening in the public life of the country these days.

SPEEDING THE WORD

ANOTHER FACET OF THE MODERN world of wonders is seen in a brief news item to the effect that radio teletype messages are being exchanged between President Truman's special train and the White House plane that flies mail from Washington to the traveling President. Teletype machines, like large electric typewriters, are universally used by telegraph companies, and in transmitting news to newspapers. An operator at the sending point types out the letters and words which are simultaneously received by all the machines connected to the line. During the war teletypes were successfully used without a connecting line, and typewritten copy was shot through the air by radio waves, to be reproduced by the receiving machine. To have such messages crackling back and forth between a speeding train and an airplane, however, gives fresh emphasis to the marvels of communication which we rapidly are coming to take for granted. Literally, the day has arrived when "the who runs may read."

TEACHERS AND PUBLIC OFFICE

IT IS NATURAL THAT BRITISH Columbia school teachers, on whom a large measure of dependence is placed for instruction in democratic principles and practice, should be concerned over the rules which bar them from candidacy for democratic municipal office. Certain qualifications, of course, are set for all aspirants for council and school board elective posts. Teachers who possess the general qualifications are, however, prevented from standing while they are salaried civic or municipal employees.

Some justification may be found for the section of the School Act which requires a trustee to vacate office when appointed to a salaried position under board jurisdiction. In the first place the dual capacity of employer and employee would pose its own disadvantages. Moreover, a natural prejudice might automatically be attached to an official laboring under such conditions. Nor would it augur well for discipline if a subordinate teacher were able to boss his or her principal as a trustee.

Indirectly the same arguments might be presented to justify the Municipal Act clause which prevents a teacher from being a mayor, reeve or alderman in the city or municipality in which he or she works. It is conceivable that a councillor or alderman who also happened to be a teacher might influence wage policies concerning teaching staffs. On the other hand, a teacher, as an employee of the school board, is only indirectly under the jurisdiction of the municipal council.

Moreover, the vast bulk of civic and municipal business is of a nature to which the teacher, as a respected member of an honorable profession, should be able to apply his or her talents for the benefit of the community. Is there any reason to believe that this category of citizens would be less able or less civic-conscious than other professional people, business men and women or trades groups?

These factors no doubt will engage the attention of the Union of British Columbia Municipalities, to which the issue is being forwarded by the B.C. Teachers' Federation. Several difficulties are apparent. But it does seem somewhat anomalous that those who are entrusted with the task of teaching democracy in the classroom are disqualified by the practice of their profession from enjoying the right to stand for offices which are open to the majority of our people.

MALADY AND REMEDY

ONE OF THE MOST SIGNIFICANT developments of this age, according to Field Marshal Jan Christian Smuts, is the "new technique of aggression and pacific conquest which has taken the place of orthodox war." The Commonwealth statesman, speaking today on the occasion of his proclamation as Chancellor of Cambridge, was referring to what he described as the "fifth column technique," and he gave as examples the processes that have taken place in the countries of eastern Europe and currently are continuing in Greece. Said the former South African Premier, "This new technique of conquest without war has proved so successful that it has become all but a substitute for war itself. The silent, grim battlefield is moving westward in Central Europe."

In these words the Field Marshal described a development in international relations that has posed new problems for the western democracies and added new stresses and strains to postwar diplomatic affairs. The employment of agents acting secretly or openly, and the recruitment of a country's own citizens for traitorous actions against their homeland, constitute a form of undeclared war which might flare into formal conflict with little encouragement. It was Hitler's technique of preparation when he had marked a neighboring land for armed invasion. It is Soviet Russia's technique of world revolution today.

Field Marshal Smuts' recommended defence against such tactics is firmness. While the menace exists, he said, the best insurance against it is preparedness for war. Such preparedness, if properly carried out, should provide an effective deterrent to any action likely to carry the "cold war" into a hotter phase, and the country under attack would have an opportunity to counteract the subversive activities in its midst. The prospect is a grim one for a peace-loving nation—but so is the danger.

EVENTUALLY BY AGREEMENT

AS CEASE-FIRE ORDERS WENT OUT to Arab and Jewish troops in the field as the result of United Nations mediation, conflicting forces were afforded the opportunity to seek again a solution of the difficulties which set them at one another's throats following the November decision on the partition of Palestine. The temporary halt in the shooting war, intensified when Britain withdrew, gave no definite assurance of lasting peace in the Holy Land. Basic disputes have not been settled.

The truce, however, emphasized one important fact. Short of the total liquidation of one or the other factions, eventual settlement in Palestine will have to come by agreement. In other words, should the Arabs and Jews again take up the sword, when they have battled to a state of exhaustion they will still have to negotiate with one another to conclude an arrangement whereby they can live together in the Holy Land. Victory by force may give one or the other a transient advantage, but any dictated peace by the winner will leave embers of resentment smoldering to light another conflagration at some future date.

Now, although hatreds are intensified by the killing and destruction that have occurred in recent weeks, there still remains a better chance of reaching some satisfactory compromise than there would be should the injuries of war be compounded. The truce itself is a major achievement which, if reason prevails, should point the way to more stable relations between the two peoples who must, in the end, share the disputed territory. The mass killing is being stopped. It should not be resumed.

PAYING THE PENALTY

EVERYONE WHO HAS TRAVELED IN a British railway carriage will recall the small section of signal cord that comes out of a pipe in the vestibule, and the painted sign nearby which warns briefly: "Penalty for improper use £5." Although many a passenger has experienced a temptation to pull the cord to see if it would really stop the train, a sense of propriety, no less than the £5 fine, has restrained him.

It remained for a 19-year-old soldier, wishing to save time in hurrying to the bedside of his ill wife several weeks ago, to do the deed. He pulled the cord, the night express stopped, and a mail train following behind crashed into it. Twenty-four persons were killed.

This week the soldier was sentenced. Despite the severity of the tragedy and the far-reaching consequences of his act, British justice found him liable only to the penalty for improper use—£5. But he will carry a heavy load on his heart the rest of his days.

Record Of Congress

By PETER EDSON From Washington

IF THIS YEAR'S United States elections were to be decided on some other basis than personalities, hunches or emotions, the most important issue would be the record of the 80th Congress, which has had a Republican majority, versus the record of the Democratic President Truman. Cynics will say that's no choice, but determination of the lesser of two evils.

It has been a "business" Congress, definitely reversing the trend of the "labor" Congresses in the Roosevelt years. Anything that would help business has had the green light. Everything that business didn't want has been turned down in one way or another.

THIS PROBABLY EXPLAINS why Fortune, the $2.50 glamor magazine of big business, leads off this month with the statement that "the 80th Congress has accomplished more important, useful work than perhaps any other peacetime Congress."

This could be damning with faint praise. But it will be quoted widely by Republican congressmen as justification for their record over the past two years. It is also open to Democratic challenge.

FORTUNE LISTS nine good things this Congress has done: Refusal to seat Senator Bilbo of Mississippi, the European recovery program, aid to Greece and Turkey, aid to China, passage of the Mundt "Voice of America" authorization bill, the Taft-Hartley labor law, tax reduction, the Lodge-Brown bill creating the Hoover commission to study reorganization of federal government, and the travels of 200 congressmen in Europe last summer.

Bilbo wasn't seated, he was allowed to go home and die. ERP, the Truman Doctrine of aid to Greece and Turkey and the concept of the Voice of America came from the Democratic administration. Aid to China was taken up by the Republicans, against the wishes of the President and Secretary Marshall, who thought they had learned by experience that it couldn't be made to work.

IT IS STILL TOO EARLY to tell whether the Taft-Hartley law is good or bad. It has been used effectively to stop John L. Lewis once and now faces a second test. The law has not brought labor peace.

Taxes have been cut, but even the Republican leadership admits that they will have to be raised next year, or else government will have to go back to deficit financing.

The Hoover reorganization commission doesn't report till 1949, so it's too early to tell.

Even the Fortune editors, at the end of their piece, admit briefly that the 80th Congress has some debts. Listed are failure to do anything about admitting displaced persons, the effort to raise the wool tariff while the administration was trying to negotiate trade agreements with 23 nations at Geneva, the Howard Hughes probe.

THAT'S A PIKER LIST, likewise open to challenge. Something is at long last going to be done for the DPs, and the Hughes investigation at least made the air forces reorganize their procurement system. But the raid of the wool lobby, which President Truman killed with a well-placed veto, was nothing compared to the way the high tariff lobby has been able to wreck the entire reciprocal trade agreements program.

The real record of the 80th Congress is being made in the last two weeks of the session. There may be some fast work at the finish, but at present the list of measures to be by-passed looks longer than the list of measures on which action will be completed.

IN PASSING JUDGMENT HERE, it is important to note the wide difference between the progressive Senate and the reactionary House. The Senate has passed long-range housing and education aid bills. Both are apparently being killed in the House. The House quit cold on a long-range farm program. If anything gets done on this it will be through the efforts of the Senate. A Senate committee killed the House-passed Moore-Rizley natural gas bill which would have given millions to the big producing companies. The House Rules Committee has for two years held up Universal Military Training. But give this same committee credit for blocking a tax reform bill so bad it was disgraceful.

NOTHING EFFECTIVE has been done about the cost of living. The national health program is dead. Minimum wage standards will not be raised. Social security extension will be far less than recommended, if anything is done at all. Budget cuts will be insignificant even if ERP funds are reduced far below necessary minimums.

There is an awful lot in this record not to be proud of.

Quoting
The U.N. is not what it was intended to be. Its members are not doing all they could be doing to make it work.—Trygve Lie, U.N. secretary-general.

The challenge of 1945 is whether the universal longing of mankind for peace and freedom shall prevail or whether it is to be shouted and betrayed.—President Truman.

It is the soul of culture of western Europe that has been the mainspring of its contribution to world civilization. We must bend our energies if we are to succeed.—Sir Stafford Cripps, British Economic Minister.

Yeh, But—

Warren Austin—Rugged Sense Of Loyalty

By JAMES THRASHER from New York

TO REPORTERS who asked him if it were true that he was going to quit his United Nations post, Warren Austin gave this amiable but pointed answer: "If you ask me whether I have resigned, I haven't. If you ask me whether I am going to resign, I am not."

That is as definite a statement as anyone could ask. Yet it is not surprising that rumors to the contrary have been circulating. For Mr. Austin's recent diplomatic role has been most difficult and embarrassing.

As America's top man in the United Nations, it was his assignment last year to put through the U.N. Commission's proposal of partition in Palestine.

Even after the United States government came out for partition there were a good many reluctant members that had to be brought into line. This was accomplished—and, according to reports, not always on the high plane of polite diplomatic language. At any rate, there is little question that the final partition vote was largely the result of American influence.

But Mr. Austin has been present since then to try to answer unanswerable questions, to listen to sarcastic jokes of other delegates about American diplomats who don't know their own government's policy.

No wonder, then, that there were rumors that Mr. Austin might resign. In sticking to his job he seems to have acted from a rugged sense of loyalty. He is only the mouthpiece for his government's policy, and the U.N. delegates understand that. Still, there can hardly fail to be a personal feeling of humiliation and loss of prestige after the performance he had to give.

Probably Mr. Austin has saved his government a further embarrassment by staying on instead of resigning as an understandable gesture of personal protest. For him and for other diplomatic representatives who have recently had the rug pulled out from under them, Americans can only hope that they may be spared a repetition of that experience.

Points For U.S.-Russian Discussion

Special from Washington

THE U.S. STATE DEPARTMENT having rejected Premier Stalin's offer on discussing Henry Wallace's list of differences between the United States and Russia, the next step should be making a list of issues that could be talked about.

Official objection to the Wallace-Stalin list is that it consists of items "of intimate and compelling interest to many countries." What the U.S. government is apparently willing to talk about are controversies primarily affecting these two countries only.

On such a list, to begin with, would be the $11,000,000,000 worth of lend-lease supplies furnished Russia during the war, plus some $254,000,000 worth of aid given since V-J Day. The U.S. has asked no payment for articles used up since the war, including 14,000 planes, 7000 tanks and 478,000 motor vehicles. Any item of use to the Russian civilian economy, however, were to be settled for at "fair" value.

DEAF ON DEBTS
Up to January, 1947, the Russians ignored four requests to settle. Negotiations got under way in April of that year. Since then the Russians have refused to present an inventory and have refused to accept the principles of lend-lease settlements with other countries. So the deal is still stalemated.

A second and still more important item concerns Russian obstruction of the European recovery program. While this concerns other countries, it is primarily a matter between the U.S. and the U.S.S.R. The Soviet was invited to take part in Paris conferences last July. Molotov attended one session, then withdrew.

From then on the Russians have taken no part themselves and they have not allowed their satellites to take part. Instead, these countries set up the Cominform for the announced purpose of preventing the success of the Marshall Plan.

Only a complete reversal of this policy could be considered a sincere demonstration of a Soviet desire to co-operate.

AIR STRIPS
The U.S. has persistently tried to make an agreement for civil air traffic between the two countries, to permit U.S. airlines now operating to Europe and Asia to touch Russian ports. All such overtures have been rejected.

The U.S. government has sought to arrange for the exchange of publications, scientists, artists and students. Instead of meeting these advances half way, the Soviet Union has done everything it could to further isolate her people from cultural contact with the world outside the Soviet orbit.

The U.S. "Voice of America" radio programs and the U.S. government-published magazine "Amerika"—printed in Russian for distribution in Russia—have stuck to America's presentation of life in America. Controversial issues have been avoided.

In response, Soviet propaganda at home and abroad has always been violently and abusively anti-American. The United States is pictured as seeking world domination and headed for eventual economic collapse. Until this attitude changes, it is considered hopeless to achieve more friendly relations.

BROKEN AGREEMENTS
At Yalta an agreement was made for exchange of nationals liberated by Soviet and American forces. U.S. repatriation teams have been refused access to American citizens liberated by the Russians.

The list of other agreements made by the Russians at Yalta and Potsdam is long. The list of these agreements not kept is almost as long. Most of these violations concern other countries. But American and Russian interests are in direct conflict in Korea, Germany and Austria particularly.

Establishment of a democratic and free Korea has been blocked by the Russians at every turn. This is highlighted most recently by refusal to allow the northern, Russian zone to take part in recent elections under the United Nations, and the shutting off of power generated in the northern zone for distribution to consumers in the U.S. southern zone.

Writing of an Austrian peace treaty has been urged by the United States ever since the end of the war. It has been blocked by the Russians, though negotiations are still under way.

Organization of Germany as a single economic unit has been similarly blocked. And finally, the offer of a 40-year mutual guaranty pact against German and Japanese aggression has been spurned.

SCHOLARLY Sir Oliver Franks, the new British ambassador to the United States, is hardly a man to be envied.

He takes up his duties in Washington at a time when British-American relations are at a low point, indeed. The overall admiration and genuine friendship between the two people that was engendered by close contact during the war.

But the British leaders already are irritated, seriously, with United States Palestine "policy."

In the near future, American administrators are likely to be just as irritated with Britain over events that develop from the actual operations of the Marshall Plan.

MAINTAINED PEACE

Britain has been in the Middle East for well over a century. At the apex of her strength, she was the only great force in the Arab world. She maintained peace and order, entered into treaty relationships with the Arab countries, and even with the smaller tribes.

Along with considerable business and economic interests, she acquired great prestige.

It was natural, therefore, for the Arabs to look to Britain for assistance, political and otherwise, in the battle over Palestine.

Britain was opposed to partitioning the country. How she would have solved the problem, had hers been the deciding voice at Lake Success, is a question. Whatever the answer, the United States led the move.

Britain ultimately must recognize the new state, too. When she does, her position in the Arab world may become practically impossible. The Arabs certainly will turn elsewhere, to some other major power, for help.

IRRITATION

That's the basis for British irritation with the United States. Americans, in turn, are beginning to feel excessively annoyed over British economic operations.

As Marshall Plan money goes across the sea, that annoyance may develop into real friction. For one thing, there is the "sterling bloc." How will British and American administrators decide between an "earned" dollar and a "free" dollar? Britain is going to acquire dollars both by the sale of exported products and through Marshall Plan loans. Americans will demand some degree of supervision in the use of the latter.

Criticism, too, exists in Washington over the matter of trade between western Europe and those countries within the Russian orbit.

CLIPPED AT RANDOM

GIRL FISHERMAN
Australian News
After a 40-minute tussle, Joan Watkins, aged 15, recently landed a 213-lb. black marlin, five miles off Newcastle, on Australia's Pacific coast. The marlin was nine feet seven inches long, nearly twice Joan's height, and 47 inches round the girth. Australians know of no other girl of 15 having landed such a catch. Unaided, Joan's fish was not as big as the 480-pounder landed by famous angler Zane Grey in 1936, but Joan has not yet done as much fishing as Zane did. The black marlin, a swordfish, is one of Australia's big game fish.

GREIG MEMORIAL
Norway Digest
Music lovers of Ullensvang, Norway, the site of Edvard Grieg's summer cottage where he conceived many of his world-renowned compositions, have decided to restore the tiny building and preserve it as a memorial to the famous Norwegian composer. Moved from its original site over 40 years ago, the cottage is to be purchased from its present owner with funds from contributors, and moved back to its familiar setting in an apple orchard near the Ullensvang Hotel. Restoration is expected to be completed by late summer when a Greig festival will mark the occasion.

It is encouraging to hear Trade and Commerce Minister Howe, himself an engineer, assert the bright and expansive future awaiting this country. Given materials, labor, and above all, skilled engineers, this Dominion faces a most rewarding and profitable future. Speaking at Haultain College, the Nova Scotia Technical College, Mr. Howe declared: "It seems to me that the next 20 years will call for engineering on a scale far beyond anything this country has witnessed. No one who is aware of the current pressures for expansion within Canada can be pessimistic about the future."

Justice In Canada Topic Of Sharp Commons Debate

OTTAWA (CP)—A coal miner took on the head of the Canadian Bar Association and a distinguished criminal lawyer in a Commons battle Wednesday over the quality of Canadian justice.

With entranced members egging the participants on to new heights of rhetoric, the house heard:

Clarie Gillis, the C.C.F. miner-legislator who represents Cape Breton South, say bluntly that Canadians get just about the amount of justice they can buy.

John T. Hackett, P.C., Stansfeld, Que., bar association president, tell Mr. Gillis he had lost the right to sit among "honest and honorable men."

John Diefenbaker, P.C., Lake Centre, Sask., noted criminal lawyer, hark back through the centuries in defence of his profession and advise the government to keep the judiciary out of the "cockpit of politics."

Mr. Hackett, his shaggy grey thatch tossing in a storm of fury, accused the Cape Bretoner of ignorance, bitterness and falsehood.

MAGISTRATE SYSTEM

Mr. Gillis drew down the wrath of the bar by an attack on the country's magistrate system during discussion of Justice Minister Ilesley's estimates.

He wanted "sane and sensible" people as magistrates. No self-respecting lawyers wanted the jobs under present conditions. In many cases, they went to local civil politicians with practically no law training and often little judgment.

Of the administration of justice generally, he found there was "too much manipulation."

"There is not enough honesty in it," he declared.

To a chorus of dissent from members, Mr. Gillis replied:

"You can say 'no' as much as you like. When I hear a man stand up in the House, particularly a member of the legal profession, and say that everyone has his day in court in this country and that there is justice for all, I am going to make this statement without reservation: 'You are pretty much in the same position when you face the courts of this country as you are when you go out seeking medical attention. You will get as much as you are able to pay for.'"

ADVICE SUGGESTED

Mr. Gillis went on to say that the Justice Department should confer with the provinces, which administer magistrates' courts, to see that qualified men get the jobs. They should have to write examinations.

Mr. Hackett seized on that suggestion for his opening attack.

"I think," he said acidly, "it might be well sometimes if a like rule were applied to Members of Parliament, because in my mind it is almost criminal that a man holding the responsibility of the honorable gentleman should speak about something concerning which his ignorance is rivalled only by his bitterness."

When the Cape Breton member charged the magistracy with incompetency, "the most kindly excuse . . . is that he did not know of which he was talking."

In his province of Quebec, Mr. Hackett said, men of high ability and integrity were recruited from "a lesser breed."

"There is not any difference across the Dominion," Mr. Gillis interjected.

Hammering on his desk, Mr. Hackett roared:

"When he makes that statement in this House, he forfeits his right to be heard in an assembly in which honest and honorable men congregate."

DIEFENBAKER'S VIEWS

Mr. Diefenbaker did not go after Mr. Gillis directly, but summed up the great British counsel of the past in a defence of the legal profession. Perhaps, he said, Canadian lawyers might follow their principles more closely.

However, he said, the legal profession needed no defence. But the government should take action to maintain detachment on the part of the judiciary.

It should resolve not to use them in royal commissions where political considerations entered.

"In doing that," said Mr. Diefenbaker, "we bring the judge from his elevated position of detachment down into the cockpit of party politics. Regardless of the decision that he makes, aspersions are cast on him as commissioner, which inevitably results in a disrespect for the judiciary as a whole."

Political appointments to the judiciary also should be banned, he said.

Asks Court Test Of Margarine Ban

OTTAWA (CP)—Senator W. D. Euler, Lib., Ontario, asked the Senate Wednesday to back a request to the government to submit the margarine ban to a test of validity in the Supreme Court.

He spoke after Senator Ian Mackenzie, Lib., British Columbia, had protested unsuccessfully against the motion to ask Senate support for a court test. Senator Mackenzie held the Senate couldn't deal with a question that had already come to a vote in the same session, and that any move to change the tariff structure must originate in the Commons.

The Speaker upheld Senator Euler's right to put his motion.

Uranium Discovery Believed First Big Ore Find In Canada

OTTAWA (CP)—Uranium authorities say discovery of ore deposits in the northern part of Saskatchewan may prove to be the first big uranium find since Trade Minister Howe threw open prospecting to the public several months ago.

Uranium is required in the manufacture of atom bombs. "So far," said one official, "discoveries have proven of far less value than those already procured by the government since the Second World War."

In Regina, Resources Minister

Phelps confirmed the discovery of the deposits in the Lac la Ronge area, 200 miles north of Prince Albert. Samples of the ore had been flown to Ottawa.

"This may prove to be the first big find," one uranium official said. "The government's Eldorado Crown Company is operating in the Lake Athabasca district and the whole area there is believed to hold great possibilities."

New Educational Training At Naden

Demonstrating the principle of generating electricity by rotating a conductor in an electro-magnetic field, Instructor Lt.-Cmdr. J. C. Clark of Prince Rupert, holds the attention of R.C.N. students. The students are Air Mechanic John Lowe, Hoosier, Sask.; Ordinary Seaman Norman Helde, Vancouver; Ordinary Seaman Jack Switzer, Kingston, Ont., and at extreme right, Ordinary Telegrapher Lloyd Zwicker, Halifax.

At H.M.C.S. Naden, a schedule of educational training has been launched suited to the academic background of the individual new entry. This is designed to give him a good start on the educational path toward advancement and specialization as his career in the R.C.N. develops.

Modern techniques require a good grounding in mathematics, science and English and these subjects form the base of the progressive educational schedule. Other academic subjects are provided on a selective basis to conform to the student's particular requirements. Mechanics, acoustics, electricity, chemistry and physics are fitted into a student's curriculum, as required.

The teaching staff, all professionally qualified instructors, are under the direction of senior schoolmaster, Instructor Lt.-Cmdr. J. D. Armstrong, B.A., R.C.N., of Regina, Sask.

Men may enter the program at any desired level from grade eight to junior matriculation standards. The full schedule is designed to coach a new entry sailor through all compulsory and voluntary subjects up to standards required for "officer candidate."

On completing 12 weeks' basic naval training after entry into the service, a man commences six weeks' educational studies in his first trade grouping. Further educational courses of varying length and content are available for men who require additional coaching to prepare for technical training.

"While our object in designing these courses is primarily to expedite technical training," states Lt.-Cmdr. Armstrong, "they can also provide any sailor in the Royal Canadian Navy with a well-rounded education."

Junior Optimists Boost Membership

Membership in the Victoria West Junior Optimists Club reached 40 when 11 new boys were initiated at a club meeting Wednesday night at the Tye Road clubrooms.

So as the club will be able to consolidate itself, no new members will be taken in for a month, said E. H. Baker, chairman of the boys' work committee of the Optimists Club of Victoria, sponsor of the junior club.

The Optimists Carnival to be held June 24 to 26 in the Bay Street Armories will provide funds for the extension of boys' work activities by the clubmen. Proceeds from the carnival will be used to outfit four baseball teams, five softball teams and to supplement the club's boxing equipment.

It is also planned to send all junior club members to the Y.M.C.A. camp at Glinz Lake during the summer, Mr. Baker said.

Suggests Navy Take Supplies To North

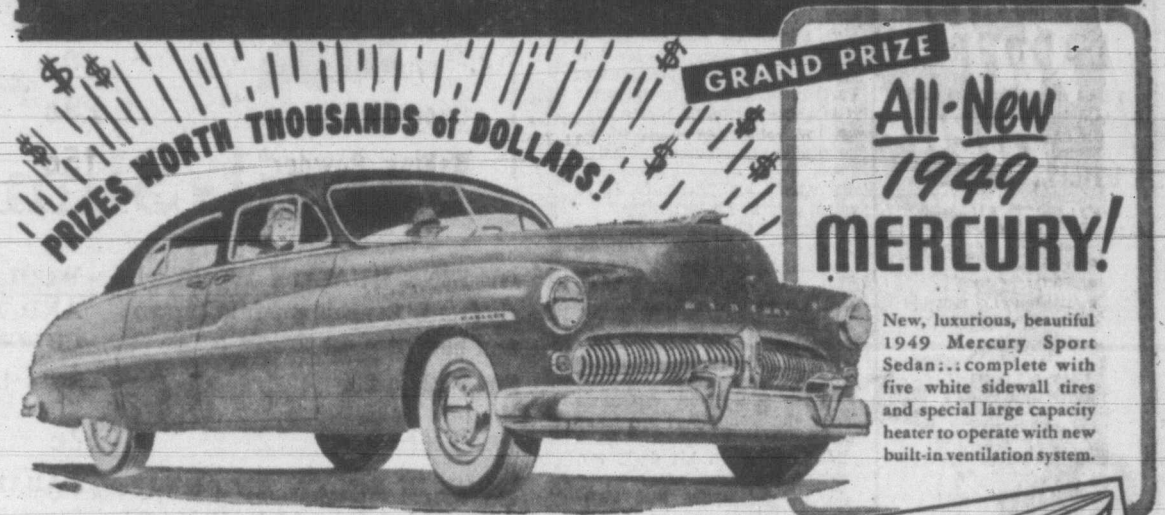

OTTAWA (CP)—Lawrence Skye, P.C., Toronto-Trinity, suggested Wednesday in the Commons that the Royal Canadian Navy take over the task of carrying annual supplies to posts on the eastern Arctic patrol.

The posts were supplied by the Nascope, a Hudson's Bay Co. vessel, but she ran aground last year and sank.

The Skye made the statement on a transport department estimate providing $2,273,000 for the construction of a new Arctic patrol ship.

Transport Minister Chevier said the defence department favored the handling of the patrol by his department. The navy had no ice-breaking ships suitable for the patrol.

Higher Academic Standards Urged For Chiropractors

CALGARY (CP)—Stern warnings that chiropractors must raise their academic standards by their own efforts or face possible restrictive legislation, were voiced by leaders of the profession at the annual meeting of the Western Canada
Chiropractors' Association here Wednesday.

Dr. R. O. Muller of Toronto,
Dean of the Canadian Memorial College of Chiropractic, said provincial legislation was impending making it mandatory for chiropractors to have a knowledge of the basic sciences. He said boards might be set up to examine chiropractors on their knowledge of psychology, chemistry and other subjects.

Chiropractors must "keep pace with the times" by raising their academic standards.

John Burton of Vancouver, legal representative of the Dominion council, National Chiropractors' body, urged delegates to fight such legislation. He said this legislation was only part of a "concerted onslaught that the medical men of Canada are making on the chiropractic profession."

"The temperament of the people of Canada and the United States is not to extend greater privileges to chiropractors. We are losing ground legislatively and 1,200 students of the Palmer School of Chiropractic (at Davenport, Iowa) may not be allowed to practice their profession in any state or province after they graduate."

Chief Of Army Staff Urges U.S. Build Up Armed Forces

DETROIT (AP)—Gen. Omar
Bradley spoke Wednesday night of an "appalling decay" in the United States army's "combat capabilities" and urged an "immediate repair."

The army chief of staff told the American Ordnance Association he expressed himself in the light of developments in Europe which had involved the United States in a struggle "where power has once again become the arbitrator of decision."

GEN. O. BRADLEY

Bradley addressed a banquet of the association's 30th national meeting. Another speaker was Victor Sifton, president of the Canadian Ordnance Association.

Bradley was joined in his criticism of United States preparedness by Gen. Joseph Mc-Narney of the air forces.

OUTDATED PLANES

"If war occurred today," Mc-Narney said, "the air force combat groups would be composed primarily of planes that were on the drawing boards prior to Pearl Harbor."

McNarney, commanding general of the air materiel command, said several years would be required to tool up for proper production because of the "weakened state" of the aviation industry.

Bradley said he was "dismayed by recent events" despite "generous aid" from the United States in relief and reconstruction for Europe.

"Therefore," he said, "even as we continue to strain toward peace through justice, even as we subscribe to the United Nations with the full force of our convictions . . . we are left with no present-day choice but to arm ourselves if we are to champion its principles as our own."

Nuptial Mass This Morning In St. Andrew's Cathedral

Pink and white snapdragons banked the altar in St. Andrew's Cathedral as Rev. Father D. K. Lehan officiated at the nuptial mass at 9 o'clock this morning which united in marriage Margaret Loretta Kilcoyne and Michael John Griffin.

A reception in the Princess Louise Room of the Empress Hotel followed the service, after which the bride and groom left on their wedding trip before going to Vancouver, where they will make their home.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, J. Kilcoyne of 238 Douglas Street, Victoria. Her wedding gown was of white brocaded taffeta fashioned with fitted bodice, lily-point sleeves, and full skirt, over which cascaded a floor-length veil.

A birthstone pendant was her only jewelry, and she carried a shower bouquet of red roses with rosebuds on the streamers. Miss Dorothy Griffin attended her brother's bride, and was gowned in blue taffeta. Her chapel veil was of blue net, and she carried a shower bouquet of pink carnations.

J. F. Griffin was best man for his brother, and guests were seated by F. Bury and F. Costello.

Soloist during the service was F. J. Griffin, who sang "Ave Maria," and while the register was being signed, "Panis Angelicus," Miss S. M. McKay was organist.

Guests at the reception were received by parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. M. Griffin, and Mr. Kilcoyne, assisted by the bride's sister, Mrs. F. Barry, J. Langley, godfather of the bride, proposed the toast, and the bride and groom cut the three-tier wedding cake, which was topped with a silver vase of flowers.

As her only jewelry she wore a single strand of pearls given her by the groom.

Mrs. R. J. Bool attended her sister as matron of honor, and wore a gown of white sheer. Also in white was bridesmaid Miss Elaine Beckerly, whose gown was of taffeta.

Both attendants wore bandeaux of white sweet peas and carried sprays of white carnations and pink rosebuds.

Attractive Living Room in Demonstration Home

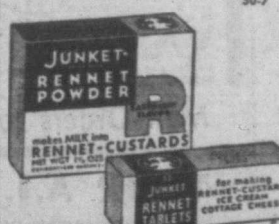

Humber's Furniture Warehouse has shown rare understanding of the needs and budget of the average home-maker in furnishing the model home, now open to the public, off Saanich Road on Mackenzie Avenue (left off Quadra at Ballantyne). One of the first things which impresses the hundreds of people, who are viewing this house each evening, is the lovely combination of colors. The Weld-Tex walls are silver grey, the broadloom reversible wool carpet a deeper grey, forming a perfect background to show off the pastel colored china ornaments, vases and lamps. The mahogany chest of drawers and one chair is American Beauty Rose, the other chair, a deep turquoise. A variety of lighting effects may be achieved with the use of the tri-lite, torchiere lamp and table lamp. The photo shows the edge of the tri-lite hand painted plastic silk shade, at the extreme right. This is the tri-lite to be given away to the lucky winner of the free attendance draw. (Tickets free as you enter the house.) The plate glass mirror is placed to reflect the light from the corner window, giving almost the effect of another window, beneath it is seen the Christolam combination record player and radio, an instrument of superb tone and beauty. Final touch of charm is the open fireplace with its handsome brass firescreen and fire irons.

The Demonstration Home is open to the public each evening this week, including Sunday, from 7 to 10, and Sunday afternoon from 2 to 5 p.m.

Says Canada Needs Speedy Up-To-Date Merchant Vessels

OTTAWA (CP)—Canada will need a fleet of fast, modern merchant ships if she is to compete with other countries on the high seas, Transport Minister Chevrier said Wednesday in the Commons.

Merchant ships built for the government during the war and later sold to private Canadian firms now were becoming obsolete, he said. They would have to be replaced by modern ships. The minister made the statement in replying to criticism of the Canadian Maritime Commission by some Liberal and opposition members. Lack of Maritime representation on the commission brought complaints from Liberal members of the Maritime.

The topic was one of several discussed during the day, which marked the start of morning sittings. The debate centred on estimates for the justice and transport departments.

On the justice estimates, Donald Fleming, P.C., Toronto-Eglinton, and several other members called for prison reforms.

Justice Minister Beley said some progress was being made in the matter of reforms. Segregation of prisoners had been started; a training school for penitentiary officers had been opened; salaries for guards had been increased and full-time vocational training for prisoners had been started in two penitentiaries.

Meetings had been held with provincial government representatives to seek better co-ordination between federal and provincial prisons.

Well Known Teachers Conduct Exams

JOHN J. WEATHERSEED

FLORENCE AYMONG

ALBERTO GUERRERO

During the next few weeks, some of Canada's best-known teachers of music are to visit Victoria. They will be examining Victoria candidates for the examinations set by the Royal Conservatory of Music of Toronto. Mr. Weatherseed is organist-choir-master of Deer Park Church.

Among the pianists is Alberto Guerrero, Chilean by birth but Canadian by adoption since 1919, when he joined the faculty of the Conservatory. His professional career began in Santiago and continued in New York, where he quickly rose to the front rank of concert pianists, especially noted for his interpretation of Bach and of modern works.

The speech arts and drama courses have always been an important part of the work at Toronto's Royal Conservatory of Music, and well-known as an examiner and adjudicator at speech art festivals all across Canada is Florence Aymong. She has long been active in the Children's Little Theatre movement and in addition to her licentiate from the conservatory she has supplemented her experience with courses at London's Royal Academy of Music, the Currier School of Boston, and at Northwestern University, Chicago.

choir-master of St. Luke's Church, he established the first boys' choir in that city. Now a teacher of organ, piano and theory at the Royal Conservatory of Music of Toronto, Mr. Weatherseed is organist-choir-master of Deer Park Church.

Loss $34,000,000 In Forest Blazes In Ontario, Quebec.

By Canadian Press

Thundershowers were forecast for the fire-swept sections of northern Ontario today, but firefighters expressed doubt whether the expected downpour would be heavy enough to help appreciably. The Chapleau and Mississauga fires remained the hot spots of the Ontario situation.

In Quebec, fires continued on the rampage from the Maniwaki region north of Ottawa to the Lake St. John district.

The fire situation forced suspension of operation of pulpwood camps and sawmills in the north-eastern section of Ontario. It was estimated more than 4,000 bushworkers were thrown out of work temporarily.

As fire crews strove to cope with spreading outbreaks, the Canadian Forestry Association reported that fires so far this year in Ontario and Quebec had destroyed an estimated $34,000,000 of forest wealth.

Near Rouyn in the Quebec fire area the gold-mining village of Belleterre was declared out of danger with a fire stopped three miles from its outskirts. Spruce, birch and other species of timber were destroyed in four townships 50 miles south of Rouyn.

Hot Weather Welcomed By Saanich Loganberry Growers

A good crop of loganberries is expected by Saanich growers this year and picking probably will start during the first week of July. The recent cold, wet weather slowed the berries, but the current hot spell is making up lost time, reports J. J. Young, manager of the Saanich Fruit Growers' Association. The picture shows a prize field of logans grown by H. Bickford at Saanichton. Logan growers have increased acreage a little this year but labor difficulties have prevented any wide-scale boosts.

Rose Festival Opens
Despite Floods

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—Portland's five-day Rose Festival opened Wednesday with only Saturday's parade plans altered by the Columbia River flood.

Nightly programs are being held at Multnomah Stadium. The queen was crowned Wednesday night. Saturday's parade has been shifted from its traditional route through the business district and will be on the east side of the Willamette River where fewer traffic patrolmen will be required. Most of them are on duty in the flood area north of the city.

Committee To Study
Marriage, Divorce

TORONTO (CP)—A study of marriage, divorce and re-marriage in the Dominion will be conducted by a committee of the Presbyterian Church in Canada. The church's 74th General Assembly was scheduled to end today.

A national committee on marriage, divorce and re-marriage was suggested Wednesday night in a report from the Montreal presbytery. The report urged the committee to recommend provisions for civil marriage in every province.

3 New Peerages Created In King's Birthday Honors

LONDON (CP)—The King's birthday honors, released today, recognize public service by a long list of citizens, many of them in the country's employ.

Few on whom knighthoods or orders were conferred are widely known. Only three peerages are created—Baronies for Col. Sir A. E. Webb-Johnson, president of the Royal College of Surgeons; Sir William F. K. Taylor, 93, railway and canal commissioner; and T. E. Williams, a member of the National Council of Labor.

Among those receiving knighthoods are C. B. Cochran, 76, famed theatrical producer and manager, and William Gillatt, gynecologist attending Princess Elizabeth during her pregnancy and who attended the Duchess of Kent when her children were born. Walter de La Mare, author and poet, is made a Companion of Honor. So is Rev. H. E. Lewis, blind, Congregational minister who has written scores of hymns in Welsh.

Christopher Chancellor, general manager of Reuters' News Agency, is made a Companion of St. Michael and St. George.

Only one new privy councillor is named—Sir Frank Soskice, solicitor-general.

J. J. S. Garner, assistant secretary in the Commonwealth Relations Office and former United Kingdom Deputy High Commissioner at Ottawa, is made a Companion of Honor. Alexander Robson Bruce, British trade commissioner at Ottawa, is awarded the Order of the British Empire.

There are many awards for research work. Acting Air Commodore Frank Whittle, recently given £100,000 ($400,000) for developing a jet aircraft engine, is appointed a Knight Commander of the Order of the British Empire.

The fund has now passed the $300 mark.

All assistance possible is needed in this drive and anyone wishing to contribute is requested to call at the Eagles' Home, 751 View Street, or telephone E6325, and a canvasser will call personally.

STRIPES HELP TO SAVE ZEBRA FROM BEING SEEN BY LIONS

The markings on animals often save them from being seen by enemies. Take, for example, the zebras and giraffes of Africa. These are in danger of being killed and eaten by enemies, but their hair coloring tends to serve them.

The lion is the chief enemy in each case, so we may ask: "How does it happen that the giraffe is spotted while the zebra is striped?"

The answer is found in the favorite eating places of these animals. The zebra usually grazes on tall grass in jungles, and moves among the shadows cast by the long blades of grass. These shadows match with the stripes, and it is hard for a lion to see a zebra in a mass of jungle grass. Zebras do much of their grazing at night, but even then, when the moon is shining, there are striped shadows.

Giraffes, on the other hand, like to nibble on leaves and young shoots which are found in clumps of trees. When the sun or the moon shines through the trees, spotted shadows are cast on the ground, or on animals below the branches. The spots on the hairy coat of a giraffe match rather well with shadows of that kind.

A zebra is smaller than a giraffe, and is less speedy at running. Yet it can escape from a lion if it gets a good start.

Years ago, a reader sent me this question:

"Is a zebra white with black stripes, or black with white stripes?"

A zebra is white, or almost white, with black stripes. This may be seen by looking at the lower abdomen, which has the light "ground color" of the animal. The ground color of some zebras is creamy or buff, rather than white.

The black stripes are to be found on a zebra "from tip to toe." The head is just about covered with them, and the same is true of the back, the sides, and the legs down to the hoofs. The stripes on the legs are crosswise, but most of those on the neck and sides run up and down. Zebras are more closely related to donkeys than to horses. They usually have long ears, very much like those of donkeys, or mules.

Is it possible to tame zebras? We shall go into that subject tomorrow.

Young Simmons Hurls Third Straight Win

Apparently all that was troubling young Curt Simmons was a case of big-league jitters.

Off to a poor start, the 19-year-old high school graduate who received a record bonus of $60,000 from Philadelphia Phillies last summer is beginning to pay back dividends on the investment.

The solidly-built southpaw gave the most impressive performance of his brief career last night when he outpitched the great Ewell Blackwell as the Phillies defeated the Reds 3 to 2 in Cincinnati.

The victory, which advanced the fifth-place Phils to only 2½ games behind the first-place New York Giants in one of the closest races in National League history, was Simmons' third in succession. He now has a record of four victories and four defeats.

The Cardinals missed a glorious opportunity to take over first place when they suffered an 11 to 5 setback at the hands of Boston Braves in a night game in St. Louis. A victory over the Braves would have put the Cards half a game on top.

After presenting the Cubs with five unearned runs to drop an 8 to 7 decision in the opener, the Giants came back to win the nightcap 5 to 1. Sophomore Clint Hartung spun a neat five-hitter to register his third victory.

Early Wynn registered his sixth victory as the fast-traveling Washington Senators whipped St. Louis Browns 5 to 2 in another night game in Washington.

SPAIN WINNER

Knocking Howie Pollet out of the box with a six-run assault in the second inning, the Braves went on to gain an easy victory for southpaw Warren Spahn. The triumph left the third-place Braves only a game and a half behind the Giants.

Ralph Kiner's three-run homer highlighted a five-run first inning and gave Pittsburgh Pirates a 7 to 4 victory over Brooklyn Dodgers.

In the American League, Detroit Tigers came from behind twice to hang another defeat upon the skidding Athletics, 7 to 4, in a night game in Philadelphia.

News From The Front

Charley Keller turns on the radio in his New York hotel room to keep track of the Yankees at the stadium. The slugging outfielder broke a metacarpal bone between the third and fourth fingers of his left hand attempting a shoestring catch. He was out two-thirds of last season with a fractured disc in his spine.

Jimmy Dykes May Be Job Hunting; Rainiers Lose

The Los Angeles Angels are building up a ninth-inning home run jinx on the Hollywood Stars.

For the fourth time this season, the Angels last night beat the Stars with a last-inning over-the-fence.

It was Billy Schuster's solid sock over the centrefield fence—his seventh of the year—which gave Los Angeles the 6 to 5 decision.

Relief hurler Vernon Kennedy thus was victimized for his second beating in two nights. He bowed Tuesday as a starter. Red Lynn, also functioning in a relief role, was credited with his 10th win, the most in the Coast League.

Hollywood's second straight loss to the Angels stirred talk that manager Jimmy Dykes' job was getting shaky but this was denied vigorously by business manager Oscar Reichow.

"There has been absolutely no meeting held or called to discuss the situation," Reichow said. "Dykes is our manager and he's doing the best he can with the pitching he's got."

SEALS WIN IN 10TH

Meanwhile, first-place San Francisco nosed out last-place Portland 8 to 7 in the 10th inning, largely by some fancy use of relief hurlers in the overtime period.

Portland overcame a six-run lead to bring the score to six-all at the end of the ninth. Dixie Howell put San Francisco in front in the top of the 10th with a homer.

Zale-Graziano Bout Delay Brings In Added Dollars

NEWARK, N.J. (AP)—Rocky Graziano and Tony Zale kept an anxious eye on the sky today as they sweated out the hours for their 15-round middleweight title bout in Ruppert Stadium tonight.

On edge after months of training drudgery for this third and rubber fight, the battlers were keenly disappointed when intermittent rainstorms yesterday set back the fray a day.

Today's forecast for "partly cloudy" weather was enough to keep them on the hot seat. They weighed in yesterday, champion Graziano at 158½ and Zale at 158½, and don't have to repeat the ceremony today.

But should nasty squalls force another 24-hour delay, the gladiators might be in for trouble. In event of a double postponement, they'll have to make the 160-pound division limit again Friday noon.

Today's forecast for "partly cloudy" weather was enough to keep them on the hot seat. They weighed in yesterday, champion Graziano at 158½ and Zale at 158½, and don't have to repeat the ceremony today.

Palmer, Logue Star In Victory

Second Baseman Hits Two Homers; Spokane Here Tonight

With second-sacker Jack Palmer crashing out two home runs, good for five tallies, and Frank Logue, the bespectacled right-hander, hitting the corners of the plate with his sidearm slants, the Athletics snapped back into the heated W.I.L. race with a vengeance last night by smashing out a 13 to 7 victory over the Wenatchee Chiefs to take the series by the odd game in three.

The A's win combined with other results which saw Salem knock off Tacoma for the third night in a row moved the club to within five games of the league-leading Tigers, even though they failed to move out of their seventh-place position.

Logue in coasting to his fourth win of the season was never in trouble against the Chiefs until the ninth, when with a 13 to 1 lead to work on, he grooved three home-run balls to Les Dairymple, Jerry Gardner and pitcher Chuck Cronin.

Putting together the three-run trippers with a base on balls, a single, an error by Logue and a double by McNulty the Chiefs rammed six runs across the plate for a sensational finish.

The other mistake Logue made was also a home-run pitch, the delivery coming in the first inning which McNulty promptly parked out of the lot. Over the rest of the route he handcuffed the Chiefs with five singles.

A'S TAKE LEAD

The Athletics erased the one-run lead in the second frame with a four-run uprising. Archie Wilson started the parade with a single. Roy Gilmore walked. Sal Recca singled and Babe Jensen doubled to score Wilson and Gilmore. Balassi then beat out an infield hit to score Recca, Jensen also crossing the plate on the play when McWilliams tossed the ball away at first.

A walk to Gilmore, singles by Recca and Jensen and two-bagger by Lou Kubiak gave A's three runs in the third. Archie Wilson homered in the fourth and the locals led 8 to 1.

With Balassi on first with his second single of the game Palmer connected for his first home-run in the sixth to increase the lead. Then in the eighth with Logue and Balassi riding the cushions

Palmer lined a terrific drive out of the park that cleared the fence in left centre at the 365-foot mark.

The Kubiak to Palmer to Bucola double-play combination continued its smart defensive play and came up with two twin killings. The same trio had a pair of double plays the previous night. Palmer himself had a busy evening with four putouts and five assists.

Tonight the A's open a four-game series with the fifth-place Spokane Indians. Spokane are only a game in front of the Norbertmen, having dropped two out of three to Vancouver Capilanos their latest loss being a 3 to 2, 11-inning thriller last night.

By whipping Tacoma, 8 to 7, Salem ran its win streak to seven games and took over second place from Wenatchee just one game behind the Tacoma nine.

Bremerton edged Yakima, 5 to 4, to stay close to the pace and now trail Tacoma by one and one-half games, the same position as Wenatchee holds in the league.

Sandy Robertson is back in the fold of the Vancouver Capilanos and it was his single in the 11th inning that enabled Carl Gunnarson to score with the deciding run against Spokane. Bud Sheely, the league's leading batter, picked up four singles in five trips.

Yakima's four-run rally in the eighth inning featured by Larry Orteig's triple with the bases loaded fell one run short as the Bluejackets copped the series two games to one. Bremerton clinched the game in the fifth inning with three runs on four singles and a catcher's interference.

Other series changes tonight find Wenatchee playing at Vancouver, Yakima at Tacoma and Salem at Bremerton.

Southpaw Jim Probst is slated to start for the Athletics tonight.

Timbermen Edge Navy To Threaten Leaders

The Navy softball nine returned to action last night for the first time in over two weeks—the sailors have been over fighting the Fraser Valley floods—and the lads showed the effects of the long lay-off by dropping a 5 to 3 decision to Timber Service in a senior A game.

Net result of the game left the sailors in fourth place in the five-team loop and moved the timbermen up to within one game of the front-running Douglas Tire unit.

Earl King on the hill for Timber Service hurled beautiful ball and had a shutout in his grasp until the last half of the ninth inning when Joe Connors of the tars slapped out a home run with two runners aboard to account for all three runs.

Timbermen picked up their first tally in the third inning and took a 3 to 0 edge in the fourth with Joe Travis driving home

Gordon Richards Cracks Ribs When Mount Goes Down

BRIGHTON, Eng. (AP)—Champion jockey Gordon Richards cracked two ribs in a fall today while making a desperate bid to end a 28-race losing streak.

His mount, Austere, folded up three furlongs from the finish of a mile race. Austere was bunched with half a dozen other horses in a position to challenge the pacemaker, Hellograph.

The 40-year-old champion, who had ridden 74 winners this season until he fell out of luck June 1, was pitched under the hooves of the field.

Two other jockeys were unseated and one horse killed in the following scramble.

Sam Wragg, who was in the scramble along with Tom Sidebotham, said he believed Austere crossed his legs. Neither Wragg nor Sidebotham was hurt.

The accident cost Richards a chance to end his losing streak, a rare run for him. He was scheduled to ride Neola in the last race and she won.

Richards has ridden more winners in his lifetime than any other jockey—3,544. He is far out in front this year for national honors.

Aussies Under Bradman Favored To Hold Ashes

LONDON (CP)—There will be a tang of battle in the early summer air when the English and Australian test cricket teams face each other for the legendary "Ashes" at Trentbridge, Nottingham, today.

Despite the Australian display of formidable batting and baffling bowling since their arrival in Britain April 16—they remain unbeaten against county sides to date—there is a feeling of optimism in the hearts of cricket-following Britons.

For a week sports columns have debated the chances of England's side, which though strong in both batting and bowling does not look as impressive as the Australians on paper.

The Australians have not decided the final 11, but have published the names of 13 players from which the final team will be selected.

One cricket scribe, in a morale-boosting open letter to the home team, reflected that in 1938 the Australians were every bit as dominating in the preliminary games as they have been this season. Yet in a test match at Trentbridge their bowling was "mercilessly hammered" by three players who will be playing against them today.

The invaders are determined to retain the Ashes which they have held since 1930 and under the shrewd leadership of the

Big Fish Derby Entry Forecast For Sunday; Goldstream Fishing Best

By ROY THORSEN

Indications point to a parade of hundreds of fishermen to Saanich Inlet Sunday when members of the Victoria-Saanich Inlet Anglers' Association will comb the sport-fishing waters for any big ones that might be around to place on the prize ladder in the opening derby of 1948.

There is a hope fishing might improve before derbyists pay out their lines early in the morning of the Sabbath—but a survey of the last couple of days did not produce an overall good report.

Goldstream's May Hall contacted this morning to report the best scores per boat yesterday of the year, all taken in the lower waters which are showing up best by a wide margin.

Don McLean reeled in four jacks going up to eight pounds, yesterday, also two coho. Elwood Smith scored two, 15½ and 10½; George Hall, 9-pounder; Dilla-bough, 10-pounder and a Navy chap by the name of Stevenson, three jacks.

"This end is just boiling with feed," said May.

Fishfest will open at 6 in the morning and close at 4 in the afternoon. Bombs fired at the Anchorage, Brentwood, and rifle shots at Goldstream to signal start and close.

The big wind-up prize presentation will take place at the Anchorage headquarters site at about 4:30.

Ticket sale is fairly brisk at this writing. They are available from officials, sporting goods stores and inlet boathouses.

TRIO GOT SIX—BIGGEST 19 LBS.

Sunday's catches featured the six reeled in by Fred Acres and Bert and Tom Parker. Largest went 19 pounds. Lots of wire line used, wonder spoons and planers at the lower Goldstream end.

"Took most of them in the noon-time period," said Fred.

The brother team of F. and J. Sparks scored 17½ and 13½ in the Goldstream narrows, using martin plugs last Sunday. They employed a planer instead of lead.

Mr. and Mrs. George Williams came in with a trio weighing 13, 12 and 7 pounds. Lucky Louie plugs, 1½ pounds of weight in the lower narrows.

George Simmons took an 11-pounder and A. Cramer one going a pound better, latter using 50-50 Wonder 7 and 300 feet of wire line.

Miss Hall reported four grise brought in, small tikes and the first she had seen for a month or six weeks. Two were taken by Beverley Watson and brother trolling worms.

Lots of Jap weed about. Pro Hugh Creed suggests the "weeder" as the solution to beat this.

Take a 40-foot piece of caddyhunk line with a snap-hook, attach other end to the boat and snap-hook on line and use six ounces of weight to take it under the surface. It snags weed carried down the line.

Haul in the attached line now and then to discard collections.

SHORT SHOTS

Short-shots: Victoria Gun Club has a trophy shoot program on Sunday. Starts at 1 in afternoon. Possibility all three trophies will be shot for, including C.I.L. Shield for skeets.

Many old friends of Will Christopher, ardent fly fisherman and red physician, will be glad to know that he is back at work in Spencer's sporting goods department.

Lee Hallberg reports Cowichan Bay Salmon Club's weekly fishing competitions will open June 15. Indian sweaters are chief prizes for members registering largest springs on official scales.

Ernie Todd reports his gold challenge buttons for trap shooting can be competed for by a number of teams from clubs at whatever island club the buttons are being shot for. Before there was only one contest a day. Now any club can send representatives to gun for them, with no individual club being represented by more than one team each time.

This will mean a faster circulation of the marksmanship emblems. Only island residents are eligible.

GOOD BASS FISHING

Awarded the U.S. Liar's Club championship badge last year for his choice prevarications, George Mann this week received a new list of instructions from headquarters south of the border. They tell him in part: "You are hereby licensed to lie, prevaricate and show supreme recklessness with the truth in all matters pertaining to fishing and fish."

He hasn't done a bad job to date. . . . If you are looking for sport with the bass ask "Paddy" Heaton about Elk Lake's wonderful offerings these days.

Out with Robby Robinson and others recently Heaton has been scoring fine catches of the small-mouthed specimens, going up to five pounds. . . . He casts close inshore with worm, yellow perch and other lures. . . . Derby tidbits: Fishing winners can also qualify for the consolation list, officials ruled this week. . . . All boats must be touching weigh-in floats when signals close competitions. . . . All those fishing in one boat must be paid-up members; non-members not eligible for prizes and are not allowed to fish with members.

Unorganized Ball Loop After Players

PORT CHESTER, N.Y. (AP)—Manager Al Barallari of Port Chester Clippers in the Colonial League said last night several players in the class B circuit had been made tempting offers by the non-affiliated Quebec Provincial League of Canada.

"Last week I was offered $1,000 a month and later was told I might get $500 more if I jumped," Barallari said.

"There are a number of Mexican League players in the circuit as well as former big leaguers such as Bob Estallita, Roland Gladu and Adrian Zahala."

The manager said members of the six-club circuit have been "waving big money" before other players in the Colonial League.

WINNIPEG BASEBALL

WINNIPEG (CP)—Winnipeg Reo Wreckers stretched their lead atop the Manitoba Senior Baseball League when they shut out Winnipeg Vets 2 to 0 here last night. The win leaves Wreckers on top of the loop with a 7 to 1 record and drop Vets deep in the cellar with a single win against seven defeats.

Southpaw Larry Desjardins was the big man for Wreckers, twirling three-hit ball and driving in both runs. His long triple which rattled the fence and drove in the second Wrecker run was the longest drive of the game.

WARD GOLF LEADER

LEEDS, Eng. (AP)—Charlie Ward, British Ryder Cup golfer, paced 43 qualifiers into the final stages of the £1,050 ($4,200) Yorkshire Evening News tournament Wednesday with a 36-hole score of 134.

Ward backed up his record 64 of Tuesday with a 70.

Schools Close June 30; Some Students To Finish June 24

With examinations on their mind and holidays in their hearts, pupils of Greater Victoria schools can look forward to a long summer vacation stretching anywhere from June 24 to Sept. 7, this year.

Schools will close officially June 30, but some schools and students will finish examinations and be through any time from June 24 on, according to J. F. K. English, municipal inspector of schools.

Pupils of Grades 9, 10 and 11 will be kept in school longer this year than last, owing to the fact that they will take examinations simultaneously with students writing government matriculation exams.

In former years they started writing examinations a week prior to commencement of government examinations, Mr. English said. They will be through school from June 24 on, depending on what examinations they are writing.

A longer summer holiday will be enjoyed this year, however, owing to the fact that Labor Day does not fall until Sept. 6, which means pupils will not return to school until Tuesday, Sept. 7.

Examinations will start June 21, and the government examinations will continue until June 30. Official closing date is always June 30, although in years when the last day of June falls on Monday or Tuesday, pupils are let free on the Friday. This year, however, the last day falls on a Wednesday.

The Public Schools Act reads: "Summer vacations will be in July and August, but in a year when the last day of June ends on Monday or Tuesday, the schools shall close for the holiday on the last Friday of June."

Faulty Auto Plates Continue To Appear

Paint-peeling automobile license plates continue to be the bugbear of the Provincial Motor Vehicle Branch of the Attorney-General's Department, and officials said today they still have not got to the bottom of the trouble.

"We don't know yet why the plates are faulty, and we still are exchanging licenses from which the paint has peeled," it was reported.

Statistics have just been compiled on traffic accidents in the province in January which show an increase of 299 smash-ups this year over the corresponding month of 1947. There were 1,038 accidents in January last year and 1,337 this year.

There was a 25.5 per cent increase this year in the number of persons injured in traffic accidents. Last January 330 people were hurt and in January, 1947, the number requiring medical attention was 263.

PROPERTY DAMAGE UP

Property damage was up 49.3 per cent. In January this year the damage amounted to $220,230 and in the corresponding month of last year the figure was $147,629.

There was one more death in January this year from motor accidents than in January of last year. Eleven people died this year.

Statistics show more people have cars this year than last year. Up to Jan. 31 this year, 178,992 licenses were issued, and in the corresponding period of last year 149,509 had been taken out. This is an increase of 19.7 per cent.

Want Plasterers For Sadler Home Work

M. P. Paine, chairman of the Sadler Building committee, today asked for as many plasterers as possible to attend at Beaver Lake Saturday to finish the plastering work on the combination home and store.

Mr. Paine says it is the wish of the committee to get the job done as soon as possible so that Mr. and Mrs. Sadler can do some business this summer with lake picnickers.

Eight plasterers turned up last week-end. The Sadler home was burned to the ground late last year and took the lives of two of their three children.

Court Fines Man Striking Lad After Over-Fence Baseball

Magistrate H. C. Hall found that a Pembroke Street resident opposite Athletic Park had exceeded his authority in hitting a young lad who had entered his property to "shag" a ball which had been hit over the fence during a W.L.L. pre-game warm-up on the evening of May 23.

He found the man guilty of common assault and fined him $5. Joseph McKenna appeared for accused.

The magistrate said he could understand the citizens of Pembroke Street being annoyed with rushes on their property for the balls.

"But that still does not give them the right to take the law in their own hands," he added. Accused and neighbors who witnessed the assault said the accused had warned the 14-year-old lad to "stay off" as the boy was running onto the lawn to retrieve the free ball.

The lad said he did not hear this warning. His playmates agreed with him.

Dr. T. W. A. Gray testified the boy had facial scratches and head bruises when he examined him over a few hours later.

The boy said the man held him down and struck him with his fist.

Accused admitted he struck the boy but only with his open hand. The boys all claimed the defendant had knocked the lad down. Neighbors said accused lost his footing in a sink in the lawn and fell.

$3,000 Set As Mark For Blind Baby Fund

Three thousand dollars has been set as the objective of a fund to finance a delicate eye operation for eight-month-old Peter Bourne, blind twin son of Electrician 3rd Class Norman Bourne, R.C.N., and his wife, June, who reside in this city.

The fund will be directed by the Victoria Aerie, Fraternal Order of Eagles and will provide hospital care and operation expenses for the child.

Already $300 has been subscribed to the fund. It was reported from Eagles' headquarters this morning. Donations to the fund should be marked "Baby Bourne, Blind Baby Fund," and should be mailed or taken to the Eagles' office, 751 View Street.

Little Peter was born blind, while his twin brother, David, was perfectly normal. A city eye specialist, who has examined the child, says there is a 100 to 1 chance that an operation can give Peter his sight.

Accidental Death Verdict At Inquest

A coroner's jury returned a verdict of accidental death this morning at an inquest in McCall Bros' Funeral Home into the death of Stanley Keen Street, 70, of Kelly Road, Colwood. Dr. E. C. Hart, coroner, presided.

Mr. Street was struck by a car driven by W. H. Gibson, Colwood, shortly before midnight last Saturday on the Island Highway approximately 350 yards this side of the Colwood railway crossing. He died from injuries three hours later in Jubilee Hospital.

Evidence was that deceased, a pedestrian, the driver of the car which hit him and another car, driven by Robert W. Shore, Duncan, were all proceeding along the highway away from town when the accident happened.

According to the testimony of both Mr. Gibson and Mr. Shore, Mr. Street was walking on the traveled portion of the road and when the former started to pass the Duncan man's car the combined headlights showed the walking man just ahead.

The collision occurred almost immediately. Evidence was that neither car was traveling fast, but that Mr. Gibson found it impossible to stop his car in time to avoid striking the man.

Ss. Prince George Sails Tonight On Maiden Voyage

Canada's latest cruise liner and the largest passenger ship ever to be constructed in Canadian waters on the Pacific coast, Ss. Prince George will leave on her maiden voyage north tonight from Vancouver. Sailing on her will be more than 275 Californians. The ship was built by Yarrows Ltd. at Victoria.

The passenger list includes Hon. Clyde Watson, California State senator, several members of the California Legislature, and members of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce.

Messages of good wishes were received from R. C. Vaughan, chairman and president of C.N.R., Montreal, Capt. Frank Smith, master of the Lady Nelson, of the company's Caribbean fleet and Ernest Gruening, Governor of Alaska.

Following her maiden voyage to Alaska, the new ship will operate a series of 10-day cruises from Vancouver to Skagway throughout the summer and in the winter months will make its northern terminus at Ketchikan, Alaska.

"I am very proud to be the first master of the Prince George,"

Ideals Vitrally Important For World Peace, Says McGill Head

Intense collaboration in political and economic ideals between nations was urged by Dr. F. Cyril James, principal and vice-chancellor of McGill University, speaking before the 52nd annual convention of the Washington Bankers' Association at the Empress Hotel today.

Dr. James warned that failure on the part of nations to collaborate in the sphere of ideals would lead eventually to war and possibly to the destruction of western civilization.

"It is not enough to give our spare dollars to hungry people, we must also share our ideals," he said.

Dr. James described the International Monetary Fund, set up to provide the world with a sound economy, as a "dismal failure."

"The breakdown of the Bretton Woods Agreement during the past 12 months has been due not to technical imperfections in the International Monetary Fund but to the fact that we neither recognized nor corrected the

Flood Fund Over $70,000 Mark

The B.C. Flood Emergency Fund in Greater Victoria hit the $71,081 mark at noon today, Ted Fox, publicity director of the fund, announced.

The objective for this area has been set at $100,000. Contributions made during the last 24 hours include $2,500 from J. H. Todd & Sons Ltd.; $1,500 from David Spencer Ltd.; $1,070 from members of the Victoria Real Estate Board and employees of real estate offices, and $1,000 from Crowe Gonnason Co. Ltd. A total of $5,840 was contributed through the Royal Trust office, $4,154 through local banks, $721 through the collection of offices at the City Hall and $450 through the Canada Trust Co. yesterday.

From Vancouver, it is announced that the provincial total reached $765,969 last night. The committee in charge of the fund is aiming at $1,000,000 or more.

City Light Staff Praised For Work

High praise was given by Acting-Mayor Dr. J. D. Hunter and Ald. F. C. Mulliner, chairman of the city's electric light committee, for the work done by the men of the city's lighting department, following the fire in the Swift Street plant, Saturday morning, at a special City Council meeting this morning.

"The men deserve a great deal of credit and a vote of thanks for their work, for the city was inconvenienced very little, certainly a lot less than I expected, said Acting Mayor Hunter. "I understand the men worked all night as well as in the day to get all city lights back into operation."

Ald. Mulliner in his report told of the restoration of all service by Tuesday night and said the damage to the plant was fully covered by insurance. He thanked the B.C. Electric Railway Co. for their co-operation.

He paid special tribute to the staff of the city lighting department and to the work of Kenneth Reid, chief of the department, and Fred Hardisty, who was acting chief, until Mr. Reid returned from Banff on the Sunday.

Tenders for a public address system for the bandstand at Beacon Hill Park were opened and turned over to the parks committee.

The lands, zoning and housing committee report recommending sale of six lots for a total price of $1,342 was adopted.

particularly so because it was designed and built in Victoria," said Capt. E. B. Caldwell as the crew made final preparation for sailing. "It is a fine example of British Columbia workmanship."

"The new ship has good manoeuvrability and is smooth in its operation with a noticeable lack of vibration, a feature that is sure to meet the approval of the passengers," he said. "Nothing has been forgotten in the matter of navigation aids; the master magnetic compass is reflected into the pilot house which gives the ship's officers a double check at all times."

"I am sure the Prince George will be a popular ship on the northern run as the public rooms are well placed and comfortable. A unique feature is the A.C. electrical current and the fluorescent lighting; general speaking, there is a homey atmosphere second to none, he declared.

The Prince George is expected to prove a great addition to the province's tourist industry. She has a first-class passenger capacity of approximately 300. "The ship is 350 feet in length, has a gross tonnage of 5,900 tons with a speed of 18 knots."

Present at the dinner was Mrs. H. E. Young, graduate of Arts at McGill in 1895. Prof. J. I. Duthie, Molson professor of English at McGill University and one of the world's most outstanding Shakespearean scholars, was absent at the dinner. He was scheduled to address the meeting but was held up at Revelstoke.

The importance of propaganda as a means of backing up a national policy, was stressed by Dr. George E. Taylor, director of Far Eastern Institute, University of Washington, at the annual convention of the Washington Bankers' Association.

"The day has gone when we could ignore what people were thinking about us," stated Dr. Taylor. "The United States government now realizes propaganda as an instrument of policy."

The change of attitude toward propaganda by the United States government was attributed by the speaker to Russian propaganda methods. He pointed out that Americans were unpopular outside their own country, largely due to Russian propaganda.

The convention also heard the annual report of Ira M. Camp, president of the association. He advocated old age pensions, and health insurance plans for bank employees in the State of Washington.

Other speakers included A. L. Powers, vice-president of the United States National Bank, Portland, Ore. In his address, he stressed the importance of banking schools for the training of bank employees.

A varied program was heard by an appreciative audience on Tuesday evening in First United Church auditorium. The Victoria Philharmonic Orchestra, under the direction of Lt.-Cmdr. R. P. Basant, was heard in well-chosen selections, following which J. H. Kent sang two baritone solos.

Marjorie Goodwin and Marion Mitchell gave much pleasure with their duets.

Kay Roberts assisted with her dramatic and humorous readings. Two of the assisting artists were Louise and Stan Martin, soprano and bass.

The choir numbers were sung with crispness and precision. "Bells of St. Michael's Tower," seldom heard, was well done with the outstanding number, "Border Ballad," completing the program. Elliot T. Hullatt conducted the choir and Mrs. Gertrude Warn was accompanist.

ESQUIMALT COMMUNITY CLUB
Eighteen sick visits were made during the month, two needy families were assisted financially; $25 was voted for flood relief and a considerable amount of clothing had been collected; it was reported at the June meeting of the Esquimalt Community Club.

Friday, at 8, a bingo game will be held in the hall with the proceeds going to flood relief.

Plans for the annual garden party are well advanced. It will be held at the home of the president, 922 Lyall Street, July 7, at 2.30.

The next meeting will be held on July 5, at 8. Mrs. R. McVie presided.

A picnic in aid of the flood victims is being sponsored by the Slavic organizations of Victoria Sunday with the help of F. W. Sadler at Beaver Lake. There will be refreshments; ice cream and sports. The picnic will be in progress all day.

McGill Graduates Hear Address By Dr. Cyril James

Human happiness is just as important as productivity to the survival of western civilization, said Dr. F. Cyril James, principal and vice-chancellor of McGill University, addressing the annual dinner of McGill graduates at the Empress Hotel Wednesday.

The head of Canada's second largest university said the aim of a university should be to teach men and women how to live happily. He suggested that McGill's greatest contribution would be in the field of these intangibles—"teaching men to find, make and enjoy happiness."

Two of the most important functions of a university, Dr. James said, were to educate and train professional men who will tomorrow be responsible for the welfare of Canadian society and the expansion of frontiers of human knowledge.

Canadians should demand that their universities keep alive their heritage of culture, Dr. James said.

With regard to science, Dr. James said Canada would lose ground in the future if it failed to be as generous as Russia and the United States in financing research.

Present at the dinner was Mrs. H. E. Young, graduate of Arts at McGill in 1895. Prof. J. I. Duthie, Molson professor of English at McGill University and one of the world's most outstanding Shakespearean scholars, was absent at the dinner. Council Gives Second Reading To Streets, Waterworks By-Laws

A Streets Loan By-law authorizing the borrowing of $1,165,000 for a five-year major road program in the city, was given first and second reading at a special meeting of the City Council presided over by Acting-Mayor Dr. J. D. Hunter this morning and will receive final reading and passing at another special meeting at 11 Friday morning, to be ready to go before voters June 24.

A Waterworks Loan By-law, introduced by Ald. F. N. Cabellu, chairman of the water board, authorizing the borrowing of $155,000 for the purpose of renewing, replacing and enlarging water mains in the city and Esquimalt was also read a first and second time and will get final reading at the special meeting Friday.

The Waterworks Supply System Sale By-law authorizing the city to sell its supply system to a Greater Victoria Water District for the price of $3,472,628, the Water District being a corporation to be formed pursuant to the Greater Victoria Water District Act Amendment Act, 1948, was introduced by Ald. Cabellu and given its third reading and finally passed at the meeting. Both waterworks by-laws will go before voters June 24.

The Streets Loan By-law and Waterworks Loan By-law must be sent to B.C. Bracewell, deputy minister of municipal affairs, before final reading is given. Ald. H. M. Dignon moved introduction of the Streets Loan By-law.

"We think we have a very good road program," Acting Mayor Hunter told the council. "The work is supposed to be completed in a five-year period but of course the question of men, materials and machinery will enter into it."

In explaining the Waterworks Loan By-law, Ald. Cabellu said it would be a two-year project to improve the distribution system, putting in larger mains where the growth of the area necessitated it.

"It is in conformity with the report and recommendations made by F. C. Stewart, consulting engineer," Ald. Cabellu said. Although a "yes" vote was given on the waterworks supply system sale in the December referendum, the council had undertaken to put the matter before the people again, when the price was set. The distribution system will not be sold.

Ald. C. F. Banfield said it was too bad the streets loan by-law contained nothing in it with regard to the bridge and said another by-law might have to be brought in.

Oak Bay Committee Names New Officers For Playgrounds

Eric Greville-Jones was named chairman of the Oak Bay Playground Committee at the annual meeting Wednesday night in the Municipal Hall.

Mrs. H. A. Beckwith was chosen secretary, and Dr. Roy Johnson became treasurer.

Named to the executive were Mrs. E. L. Aubel, Mrs. R. Jackson, Mrs. E. Greville-Jones, Mrs. F. S. McKinnon, Mrs. W. B. Trimble, Mrs. E. H. Tucker, Mrs. Ralph Matthews, Mrs. Douglas Smith, Mrs. A. L. Gellert, Police Chief H. C. F. Reston, Lt. Col. A. L. Sherwood and J. A. de Bourcier.

It was decided that supervised summer playgrounds for children from three to 12 would be operated at the Willows Beach Park and at Windsor Park, starting July 5.

A grant of $800 has been received by the committee from the Oak Bay Municipal Council, it was announced, and other grants are expected from the Parent-Teacher Associations of the Willows and Monterey schools.

If the budget permits, the committee will operate its playgrounds for five weeks instead of the usual four.

OVER the

By W. L. Macfarlane

"Sure, a 'planned society' ought to deliver the goods," said the Old Timer this morning, "but have you ever seen one that did?"

"There's a little question of freedom, too, but just on the plain economic facts—can you cite one instance of a planned society that lived up to its advance notices?"

"There are experiments in planned societies in various parts of the world. Not one of them has ever succeeded in bringing the standard of living up to that enjoyed by free enterprise countries.
Not one of them has ever succeeded in abolishing poverty and destitution, and few if any of them take care of the poor and handicapped
as well as the free enterprise countries do."

"There is power and resilience in a free enterprise system.
It can cope with the needs of the moment. It can deliver the goods.
It can reward hard work and brain power as no other system can, and hard work and brain power are what are required to save the world right now."

"It is easy to paint a pretty picture of what the modern world should be. Easy for the planners to say that is what the world would be if they had their way. But it doesn't work out."

"If we work, little by little, for the improvement of our present system, we will be further ahead economically and we will have our freedom, too."

Cycle Billing Saves Expense, Speeds Operations

BANFF, Alta. (CP) — Cycle billing has eliminated "end of the month blues" for the credit accounting personnel of large department stores, George V. H.
Brown of Long Beach, Calif., said in an address before the International Credit Conference which ends today.

The conference has been attended by more than 1,000 delegates from Canada, the United States and Alaska.

Chairman of the cycle billing forum which featured Wednesday night's session, Mr. Brown outlined the recently invented method of staggering customers' monthly bills through the month.

Establishments with cycle billing in operation no longer have to dread the last two or three days of the month when stepped up energy and long hours are required to distribute monthly accounts. They are sent out at intervals throughout the month, either alphabetically, numerically, or by some other simplified method which spreads the job over the entire period.

"It has speeded up operations considerably and effected considerable savings in operating expenses," Mr. Brown said.

Customers who like to argue about items whose purchase they have forgotten—unavoidably or otherwise—are exposed by their own signature under the system.
Though the accounts do not include the names of the actual commodities, dates of purchase and signature of the customer are sufficient to remind the dissenting patron that customers are not always right.

Members of the forum panel were W. F. Bradley, San Francisco; F. R. Brunson, Kansas City, Mo.; B. C. DeLoach, Birmingham, Ala., and Hugh Tal-lent, Portland, Ore.

Mr. Brown said cycle billing has been adopted by about 50 per cent of the larger department stores in the United States and an increasing number in Canada.

Premier E. C. Manning of Alberta, guest speaker at Wednesday's session, said international co-operation can only be achieved in the present chaotic world when people as individuals learn to live together and to accept responsibility.

The DOCTOR Says:

URINE EXAMINATION
IMPORTANT IN DIAGNOSIS AND TREATMENT

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.

People may frequently wonder why a urine examination is always included in every thorough medical study of the human body. The reason, of course, is that urine reflects conditions which may be serious either in the urinary passageways or elsewhere in the body.

In acute nephritis, or Bright's disease, for example, the urine may contain blood and a protein which is known as albumin. By studying the nature and quantity of these substances during the course of the illness, the physician can get a very good idea as to the progress of the disease.

What is found in the urine is of tremendous importance in the diagnosis and treatment of any condition which may involve the kidneys, the bladder, or other portions of this excretion system. This includes stones, bladder infections, cancer, and other conditions which may attack that portion of the body.

Blood, pus, cells and certain chemical compounds are tested for, and the results are significant.

MAY INDICATE DIABETES

In addition to the urinary tract itself, the urine frequently shows signs of diseases such as diabetes. In diabetes, the pancreas gland fails to secrete a hormone which aids in the use of sugar. The result is that the sugar present in the blood passes through the kidneys and can be found in the urine. This finding of sugar in the urine is often the first evidence of diabetes. When a patient with diabetes is under treatment, the urine should be free of sugar and, consequently, this is one of the guides to the adequate treatment of the disease.

In addition to these well-known and more-common diseases, the urine may give evidence of other conditions, some of them rare. Examination of the urine is, therefore, a most important part of the physician's over-all method of diagnosing and observing the course of many human diseases.

Accidental Death At Campbell River

CAMPBELL RIVER — Oscar Gustafson, 59, came to his death accidentally a coroner's jury in Campbell River found.

Employed as a powderman at Bloedel Camp Five, Gustafson did not die in a blasting accident as first reported, but was working alone Saturday afternoon, preparing stumps for blasting when wind evidently uprooted a tree which toppled on him, pinning his legs between it and another log.

He died Sunday morning in Lourdes Hospital at Campbell River.

"Imagine!
even six-week
olds can digest
Libby's without upsets"

Yes, clinical tests prove that even a six-week-old baby can digest Libby's Baby Foods easily, without upsets.

The reason—because in preparing foods for your baby's inexperienced little stomach, Libby's take an important extra step. After straining, Libby's Baby Foods are Homogenized—rough fibres are pulverized, tough food cells are exploded open, the nourishment is released for immediate digestion. Libby's Baby Foods are actually ten times finer in texture than foods which are only strained.

Think what this means at the critical time when you start feeding fruits and vegetables! What a continued safeguard it is! No other baby food offers the added advantages of homogenization.

Babe Ruth Wears Old No. 3 Again For Special Game

NEW YORK (AP)—Babe Ruth will be the last New York Yankee to wear the No. 3 uniform after all.

The long-ailing Bambino will don the suit with the number he made famous Sunday when he will manage a team made up of members of the 1923 Yankee club in a game with an all-star team of Yankees of later years managed by Ed Barrow, and immediately afterward the uniform will be retired to the Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N.Y.

Ruth's decision to take such an active part in the Yankee Stadium silver anniversary program Sunday was prompted by several reasons.

For one, he wanted to be the last Yankee to wear No. 3.

He wanted to be in uniform just once more with 14 other members of the 1923 team, which was the first occupant of the stadium and the first Yankee team to win a world championship.

And, most of all, he wanted to wear the uniform once more as an expression of gratitude to the thousands of youngsters who wrote to him during his illness.

Five-Time Winner Here For P.N.W. Golf Event

Outstanding among women competitors in former Pacific Northwest tournaments, one of Portland's leading players, Mrs. J. Herron, the former Marian McDougall, will be among those taking part in this month's 1948 renewal in Victoria.

Mrs. Herron is a five-time winner of the women's championship in the Pacific Northwest Golf Association event which will be played on the Oak Bay and Uplands courses from June 21 to 26.

In three of the years when she won the event Mrs. Herron was also the women's medalist.

First year of her victories was in 1934 when she defeated Mrs. Don Scott, Spokane; 8 and 7. She repeated in 1935 and the following three years, being the only woman ever to win the tournament for more than two successive years. She was medalist in 1934, 1936 and 1939.

Entries for both the men's and women's championships are coming in steadily according to Wally Bowden, P.N.G.A. secretary.

Record entry for the tournament was last year's total of 170 men and 65 women. To date there are 60 advance entries, and few of these are local or B.C. mainland players who have always participated in large numbers in the past.

Teams Selected For Wightman Cup

LONDON (AP)—The captains of British and United States Wightman Cup tennis teams named their duellists today.

Mrs. Kay Stammers Menzies, a prewar star who is now concentrating on doubles play, captains the British side. She named Mrs. Jean Nicoll Bostock and Mrs. Betty Hilton as her principal singles players, with Joy Gannon playing the odd match. They will oppose an American team composed of Mrs. Margaret Osborne Dupont of Wilmington, Del., Louise Brough, Beverly Hills, Calif., Doris Hart, Miami, Fla., and Mrs. Pat Canning Todd, La Jolla, Calif.

The British team is virtually the same one that was shut out, 7 to 0, in the renewal of the Wightman Cup classic here two years ago. Britain lost by the same score at Forest Hills, N.Y., last year.

Among them, the four American girls have a virtual monopoly on the world's major tennis titles. Mrs. Dupont won the Wimbledon women's singles title last year, beating Miss Hart and Miss Brough defeated Mrs. Dupont for the American title at Forest Hills. Miss Hart and Mrs. Todd won the Wimbledon doubles title.

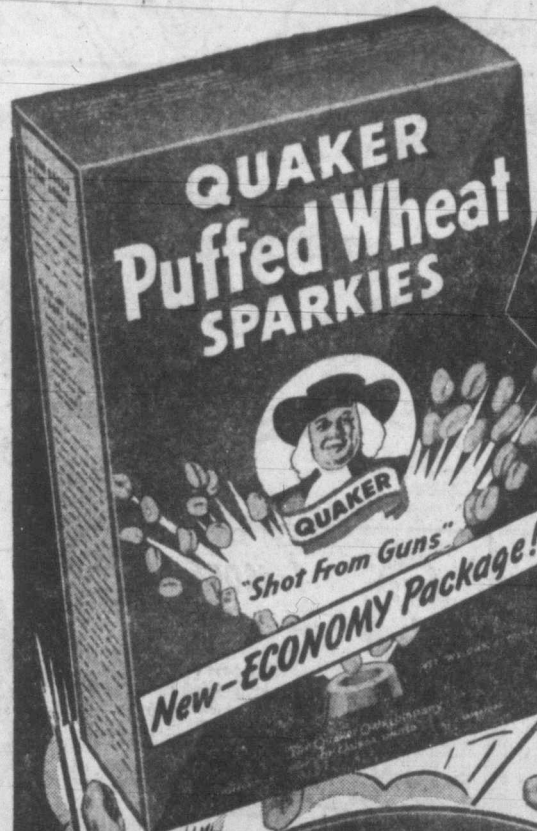

Play will start Friday on the No. 1 grass court at Wimbledon. Britain has won the Wightman Cup only four times in 19 matches since the trophy was established in 1923.

Dorothy Dix

GOOD HUSBAND TIMBER

A group of teen-agers ask me how they can tell whether a boy friend will make a good husband or not. Alas, girls, that is the $64 question to which no daughter of Eve ever finds out the answer until it is too late to do her any good. Some of the rosiest prospects turn out the greatest duds, and many a great lover is a yhländerer in disguise.

Any way you look at it there is a lot of guess work about picking out a husband, but, fortunately for women, few men are good enough actors to deceive a girl who really wants to know what she is getting when she gets married. The drunkard, the roue, the gambler, the Weary Willies are branded so that even a blind chick can see what they are. So if she ties up with one of these undesirables, her misery is on her own head.

Hence, there is no foolproof recipe for selecting a husband. There are bound to be prospects that don't pan out, but, taking it by and large, every man furnishes his girl friend with enough data on the safe side of the altar to tip her off to the kind of a husband he would make.

INVESTIGATE WELL

To begin with, he can't camouflage his disposition, and that is what the girl needs to keep her weather eye on, for that is what she has to live with if she marries him. He may be a whirlwind lover who sweeps her off her feet. He may smother her in flowers. He may talk his tongue off telling her how wonderful and beautiful and different from all other women she is. He may sound like the answer to a maiden's prayer, but before you say "yes" do a little detective work.

Is he sweet-tempered only as long as you are stroking his fur the right way? Do you have to walk on eggs to keep from irritating him? Has he a temper that is hung on a hair-trigger? Does he have grouchy spells? If so, darling, take it from me, a wife can get mighty tired of appeasing a grown-up man who acts like a spoiled baby.

Then, when you feel yourself beginning to feel that away about a man, watch his technique with his pocketbook, for it is no fun to be married to a man who makes his wife tell him what she did with that quarter he gave her week before last. Nor is there any profit in being married to a man who scatters his change around as if it were chicken feed.

THE RIGHT TASTE

Every girl has a pretty good idea of what her Fairy Prince earns. Be guided by that. If he is on a moderate salary, make your demands moderate. Develop a taste for hamburgers and beer instead of champagne and caviar. If he has never saved a nickel, go slow. Nothing gets more on a wife's nerves than penny-pinching. Beware equally the man who has a Yale lock on his billfold and the one who carries his money loose in his pocket.

Query Is Surprise For Prairie Town

HUDSON BAY, Sask. (CP)—The town council here wasn't quite sure what it was all about—but it did its best anyway.

Wednesday the council received a letter from a Mr. Henry Cohen of London, Eng., wondering if the council could tell him where composers Victor Herbert and Frederick Chopin were buried.

The council couldn't, although the town foreman suggested Herbert was buried in the United States.

Hudson Bay, a town of fewer than 800 people, is 200 miles northeast of Saskatoon.

Army To Give New Summer Cap A Trial

The Canadian Army has developed—on a trial basis only—a new summer-weight cap similar in design to the fur-trimmed, peaked cap introduced and tested by a small number of soldiers last winter.

The new summer cap is ready for testing, but will not be issued generally to troops. Instead, it will be issued to certain soldiers in various parts of the country for test purposes.

These "user trials" will continue throughout the summer and autumn and upon their outcome will depend whether the new cap will or will not be adopted as part of the regular army uniform.

Marshall Tires Of Suave Roles

Being a suave gentleman is all right as long as a few socks on the jaw go with it.

Such is the opinion of Herbert Marshall, who is making his latest film appearance as a "suave gentleman" at the Capitol Theatre in the new M-G-M suspense drama, "High Wall."

The actor confesses that he has long wanted an opportunity to reveal an unsuspected ruggedness along with the suavity, and he gets it in "High Wall." He doesn't even mind that the film's script dictates that his punch should prove less potent than that of the picture's star, Robert Taylor. In two fights with Taylor, Marshall winds up flat on his back—twice!

'The Exile' Inspired By Royal Adventure

A new approach to dramatic movie action is intriguing audiences at the Odeon Theatre where "The Exile," Universal-International release, is the current attraction. The picture, produced and written by Douglas Fairbanks Jr., has Holland in the middle 1600's as its locale. Story deals with the adventures and romantic escapades of England's exiled King Charles II during the Oliver Cromwell regime in Britain.

Unique action possibilities of the historic situation have been adroitly exploited in the picture which brings Maria Montez as Fairbanks' co-star, Paule Croset, movie newcomer, has a leading role.

Sorority Turns $325 Over To Charity

A marionette show, sponsored last month by the Zeta Chapter of the Beta Sigma Phi Sorority, netted $325 for charitable purposes. Wednesday, Miss Elizabeth Pragnell, convener of the show, left, and Miss Louise Michaux, co-convener, right, distributed the proceeds. A cheque for $200 was presented to Col. J. Q. Gillan, chairman of the 1948 Conquer Cancer Campaign, centre; $75 was turned over to the European Relief Fund; $25 was given to the Jubilee Hospital's cancer clinic, and $25 was subscribed to the St. Joseph's Hospital cancer clinic.

young, currently at the Dominion Theatre, it marked the first time these old friends have worked together in 22 years.

At that time, Una, making her debut as a professional actress, won the feminine lead in John Golden's Broadway production, "Pigs," written by Patterson McNutt. Her leading man was the same Wally Ford.

"Movies were movies even in those days," Una reminisced. "The play was bought by Fox as a starring vehicle for Janet Gaynor and the title was changed from 'Pigs' to 'The Midnight Kiss.'"

Social Welcomes European Women

Arrangements were made by the senior subdivision of the Catholic Women's League of Canada, at its last meeting of the spring season, held Tuesday evening, for a social evening to welcome a group of European immigrants.

The affair, convened by Mrs. W. Rogers, is being held in conjunction with the C.Y.O. and Victoria Junior S.W.L. as a mark of friendship to this group of young women who recently arrived in Victoria.

Mrs. Rogers presided at the meeting; Mrs. M. J. Haley, child welfare convener, reported visits to foster homes and placement homes, and said large quantities of clothing for small children was needed. Mrs. S. Hunter, ways and means convener, was named to handle tea room and refreshments at the annual garden party on July 3 in the parish hall and grounds. Mrs. P. C. Shaw reported on a special C.W.L. diocesan council meeting in Nanaimo.

Arrangements were made for school prizes and for the diocesan convention in Victoria, June 23, at St. Ann's Convent. It was announced a special library and book week will be sponsored by the league in September and scholarship requirements for the national scholarship for social service training was explained and questionnaire completed. A sum of money was voted to the Flood Relief Fund.

A special guest was Mrs. T. Taylor of the Oak Bay subdivision. At conclusion of business, refreshments were served and a musical program enjoyed.

Play Standard Assures Good Honor Performance

By AUDREY ST. D. JOHNSON

Compliments to two teams for excellent choice of play marked the third session of the Victoria Drama Festival, held Wednesday night in the auditorium of Victoria High School. Miss Dorothy Somerset, adjudicating, thanked directors and casts for bringing forward such material and in doing so, encouraged other teams to choose as wisely in future festivals.

Nine plays have been seen so far and six are to be presented during the next two evenings. The standard up to the present has been high enough to presage a good honor performance on Saturday.

NORTH SAANICH HIGH

"The Red Velvet Gown" by Josephine Wright.

Presented by North Saanich High School under the direction of Miss K. M. Baker.

Cast: Phillip Walker, Marjorie, Sheila, Shirley, Linda, and Carmen. "Diane" and "Janie" by Linda and Carmen. "Jack" by Phillip Walker. "June" by Linda. "Other Villagers" by Marjorie, Sheila, Shirley, Linda, and Carmen. "The Red Velvet Gown" by Josephine Wright.

Miss Somerset declared this a fine play for high school clubs. It is full of color and movement, humor and interesting characters. It is a folk play within a folk play and the cast caught the spirit fully during the play scene when, as audience they sang, cheered and thoroughly enjoyed the antics of the principals.

At the beginning, when the crowd entered and at the end, they were not enjoying themselves quite so much and the acting was a little self-conscious. Miss Somerset felt that as the Mexicans are a musical people there should have been a little more real music in the singing. In criticizing the speech for being too much on one tone, she said that this was a general fault to be found in most of the plays. One must not speak words only on the stage, she pointed out. The actor's job is to convey thoughts and in order to project the meaning behind the lines, he must be capable of producing the over-tones and under-tones which give variety.

Miss Somerset liked "Esteban" although he looked a little too young. He needed to be more swarthy in make-up. "Mariana" had quite a nice sense of characterization, needing only a little more inward fire. "Lorenz" did a good job and "Ramon" was excellent. The girls were nice although they might have been more "giggly." "Don Pepe" looked much too young, but did look much too young and the little drunk handled his part splendidly though he should have looked more untidy.

LANDEVILLE PLAYERS

"Confessions" by Percival White.

Presented by the Landeville Players under the direction of F. S. Dyke.

Cast: Mr. Baldwin, William Peterson; Mrs. Baldwin, Mrs. Peterson; John, John; Mr. Marshall, Mr. Marshall; A. Maid, A. Maid; Marna, Marna.

This was what is known as a psychological drama. It had very little action and plot. Its dramatic intensity depended on the reaction of the people in it to a serious matter which faces them.

The adjudicator was impressed by the intellectual understanding of the cast and its director, for the subject matter of the play. She felt, however, that they had not quite succeeded in translating their understanding in terms of the emotional responses and turmoil created by the situation. Depth of feeling was lacking though climaxes were strongly indicated and good use was made of the pause.

Miss Somerset particularly liked "John" whom she felt did a good job. He was at home on the stage and his voice reflected his feelings and thoughts.

CIVIC THEATRE GUILD

"Rosalind" by Sir James Barrie.

Presented by the Civic Theatre Guild under the direction of Mrs. Eleanor Hewitt.

Cast: Rosalind, Eleanor Hewitt; Duke, Sir James Barrie; Oliver, Sir James Barrie; Charles, Sir James Barrie.

In praising the choice, Miss Somerset said that "Rosalind" was a typical Barry play, full of whimsy, tenderness, light and shade, shrewdness and a touch of sentimentality. The stage for this production was nicely arranged and pleasantly lighted so that concentration on the characters was not destroyed by a dazzling glare.

The opening scene was convincing. "Dame Quickly" gave a good performance although her accent was a little mixed. "Rosalind" gave the sense of luxuriating middle-age very effectively but missed the youthful, bubbling quality. Miss Somerset felt that she needed more variety in her frequent changes from youth to age and more sense of mischief, but the change in voice was well managed and she handled her scenes with "Charles" well. "Charles" had some nice qualities, but he needed more ardour in his final scene.

Piano solos were played during the intermissions by Mrs. Sidney Bartlett.

TONIGHT'S PLAYS

Out-of-town entries for tonight's session will be "The House With Twisted Windows," presented by the Young Adults' Group of Duncan United Church and "From Five to Five-Thirty," by Ladyships Club 44. Doncaster Heights P.T.A. players will appear in Thornton Wilder's "Happy Journey."

Miss Adele Gault will be the guest artist for the intermissions.

Rudy Has Unseen Role In 'Margie'

Rudy Vallee plays an important part in Twentieth Century-Fox's Technicolor comedy, "Margie," which comes today to the York Theatre, but he never appears in the film.

A recording of his famous theme song, "My Time Is Your Time," is used to denote a flashback from 1946 to 1928, the year in which most of the picture is set.

Vallee re-recorded the song for "Margie" not because he thinks he sings it any better now than he did in 1928, but because the science of record making has so advanced he felt a modern recording would sound better.

Story Of Boy's Devotion To Horse

With Robert Paige, Norreen Nash and youngster Ted Donaldson in the leading roles, Eagle-Lion's Cinecolor production of "Red Stallion," the poignant and heartwarming story of a boy's devotion to his horse, opens today for a three-day engagement at the Atlas Theatre.

Photographed on location in the breathtaking beauty of the Mount Shasta country of northern California, the color outdoor adventure film has a supporting cast headed by Jane Darwell, Guy Kibbee, Ray Collins and Willie Best.

ROYAL THEATRE

Beautiful Maureen O'Hara plays her first all-out comedy role in "Sitting Pretty," the new Twentieth Century-Fox comedy, now being shown at the Royal Theatre. And, for more reasons than one, Maureen says she had the time of her life making the film. Delighted by the opportunity to switch from the period costumes of the "stately princess" type of role to the modern clothes and manner of a typical housewife, Maureen cut eight inches from her long auburn hair, and happily donned aprons for her role.

Second Murder Trial Starts In Yorkton

YORKTON, Sask. (CP)—In the second murder trial to be heard here in two days, Mrs. Nettie Thomas today faces a charge of murder in the 15-year-old death of her husband.

A King's Bench court jury Wednesday ruled the woman—confined to a mental hospital for 15 years after being judged unfit for trial in 1934—was capable of standing trial for the shooting of Charles E. Thomas in 1933.

Two of the witnesses in the case are dead—a third is believed living in the United States and cannot be located, and two B.C.M.P. officers have been brought from British Columbia as witnesses.

Mrs. Thomas was brought into the court room Wednesday immediately after 75-year-old Mrs. Nettie Ordinal had stepped out—a free woman, after 25 years.

Mrs. Ordinal was found innocent of the 1923 shooting of her husband, Peter. Like Mrs. Thomas, she was found unfit for trial, following the slaying but the case was revived following her discharge from hospital.

Thomas was killed in his farm home at Sturgis, Sask., by bullets from a .22 calibre rifle. His wife was arrested two weeks later.

PRISCILLA'S POP

Parasite! Eating all our food and giving nothing in return!

Hold! Shame on you!

You've been acting that way ever since you learned dwerdoyin is a rooster!

It's really no one's fault. Nobody had the slightest idea that it was a he instead of a she.

Don't let nonsense, Hazel! Surely he must have known!

We're building a train 13 miles long!

TAKE 1500 NEW BOX CARS—built by Northern Pacific Railway—and you'll have a train 13 miles long. This is part of N. P.'s modernization program—building a better railroad to better serve our customers.

LIFTING A MILLION PEAS WITH ONE FORK is no trick at all for this man—he's running a new Northern Pacific "fork" or "fork lift", which easily hoists 30 cases, or a million peas, high enough to walk under. These mighty mites speed freight handling at stations along the Main Street of the Northwest. Teaming up with them are Northern Pacific's new 6,000-horsepower diesels that make short work of long hauls.

Call on us when we can give you a lift with your shipping problems.
